SERVICE CIVIL DU CANADA

EXAMENS

CONFORMÉMENT à l'article 32 de la Loi du service civil, qui veut qu'un avis de chaque examen soit publié dans la Gazette du Canada, la Commission du service civil annonce les examens suivants qui sont actuellement en marche:

Six actuaires adjoints, département des Assurances, Ottawa. $1,824-$2,400 par année. Concours ouvert aux hommes domiciliés au Canada. Les délais d'inscription expirent le 10 mars 1947.

Qualités requises: Actuaire adjoint, classe 2—Diplôme d'une université reconnue avec spécialisation en mathématiques ou dans un cours comprenant assez de mathématiques pour fournir une base suffisante pour le travail actuariel; preuve d'avoir passé certains examens conduisant au titre de membre associé d'une société d'actuaires reconnue; au moins deux ans d'expérience comme adjoint actuaire, classe 1, ou dans un travail de même nature ou de même portée.

Actuaire adjoint, classe 1—Diplôme d'une université reconnue avec spécialisation en mathématiques ou dans un cours comprenant assez de mathématiques pour donner une base suffisante pour le travail actuariel. Nota: Des points supplémentaires seront accordés à ceux qui ont subi des examens d'une société d'actuaires reconnue. On pourra aussi tenir compte de l'expérience dans les travaux actuariels, mais les points accordés dépendront nécessairement de la nature de l'expérience.

Nota: En considérant les avantages d'une nomination aux positions d'actuaire adjoint, classes 1 et 2, les candidats devront accorder toute l'importance voulue au fait que cette nomination offre l'occasion de se préparer pour la profession d'actuaire aussi bien que pour l'avancement. La Commission recevra les demandes des diplômés universitaires ou des étudiants de dernière année, avec l'entente que, dans le cas des finissants, la nomination n'aura lieu que si le diplôme est obtenu.

BANQUE DU CANADA

Rapport annuel au ministre des Finances

BANQUE DU CANADA

Ottawa, le 11 février 1947.

L'honorable D. C. Abbott, C.R.,
Ministre des Finances,
Ottawa.

Monsieur le ministre,

Conformément aux dispositions de la Loi modifiant la Loi sur la Banque du Canada j'ai l'honneur de vous adresser ci-joint en double exemplaire le relevé des comptes de la Banque pour l'exercice 1946, signé par le gouverneur et par le comptable en chef, et certifié par les vérificateurs, dans la forme prescrite par les statuts de la Banque.

Les principaux changements apportés pendant l'année à divers comptes de l'actif et du passif figurent au tableau ci-dessous qui indique l'effet de ces changements sur les réserves des banques à charte.

EFFET SUR LES RÉSERVES DES BANQUES À CHARTE

(Millions de dollars)

Année civile 1946	Diminution	Augmentation
Augmentation de notre portefeuille en obligations fédérales et provinciales		60·0
Autres augmentations de notre portefeuille		5·0
Augmentation des billets entre les mains du public	43·1
Diminution dans les dépôts du gouvernement fédéral		94·4
Augmentation des autres dépôts	64·0
Diminution du passif payable en sterling, dollars des Etats-Unis d'Amérique et devises-or étrangères		155·9
Diminution de l'actif en sterling et dollars des Etats-Unis d'Amérique	155·9
Augmentation de l'excédent des autres postes de l'actif sur les autres postes du passif		6·0
	263·0	321·3
A déduire		263·0
Augmentation dans les réserves des banques à charte		58·3

BILLETS EN CIRCULATION

La Banque du Canada avait en circulation à la fin de décembre dernier $1,186,201,681 de billets, soit $57,102,433 de plus que l'année précédente à la même date. Sur ce montant $1,009.3 millions étaient entre les mains du public et $176.9 millions dans les banques à charte. Comme l'indique le tableau de l'appendice A, l'augmentation dans les billets entre les mains du public en 1946 est inférieure à celle de toutes les années depuis 1938.

RÉSERVE

Le compte à l'actif du bilan intitulé "Sterling et dollars des Etats-Unis d'Amérique" s'élevait à $960,131 au 31 décembre 1946. Il représentait du change étranger pour le compte de clients étrangers et il était contre-balancé par un compte "Passif payable en sterling, monnaie des Etats-Unis d'Amérique et devises-or étrangères" du même montant. Les fluctuations de ce compte n'ont donc produit aucun changement dans les réserves des banques à charte.

PORTEFEUILLE

Le portefeuille de la Banque comprenait $1,905,-01,009 d'obligations du Dominion et des provinces la fin de décembre 1946, soit une augmentation de $60,018,372 au cours de l'exercice. Nos achats de ces titres ont un peu plus que compensé l'effet sur les réserves des banques à charte de l'augmentation des billets de la Banque du Canada entre les mains du public et l'augmentation de $58.3 millions dans les réserves des banques que montre le tableau à la page 3 est surtout attribuable à ces achats et à la diminution nette de $30.4 millions dans les dépôts du gouvernement fédéral et les autres dépôts. Puisque les dépôts canadiens des banques à charte ont augmenté de $346 millions au cours de la même période, la proportion de leurs réserves à leurs dépôts à la fin de l'année était un peu plus élevée qu'en 1945. Toutefois, la moyenne quotidienne de cette proportion fut de 11.2 pour cent et pour l'année 1946 et pour le mois de décembre 1946, à rapprocher de 11.4 pour cent pour l'année 1945 et de 11.5 pour cent pour le mois de décembre 1945.

Les autres valeurs détenues au 31 décembre 1946 se montaient à $15,000,000 et consistaient de cent cinquante mille actions du capital de la Banque d'expansion industrielle. Cent mille actions furent achetées en 1944 conformément aux dispositions de l'article 12, paragraphe (2) de la Loi sur la Banque d'expansion industrielle. En 1946, nous avons acheté un autre cinquante mille actions en vertu du même pouvoir, afin de fournir à la Banque d'expansion industrielle des fonds additionnels pour ses opérations.

D'après les chiffres du mercredi publiés dans notre rapport hebdomadaire, le total des placements de la Banque du Canada en 1946 s'élève en moyenne à $209 millions de plus qu'en 1945.

PROFITS ET PERTES

Les bénéfices nets de nos opérations en 1946, provision faite pour éventualités et réserves, s'établissent à $21,236,194.96. Après avoir payé un dividende de $225,000 sur le capital-actions détenu par le ministre des Finances, il restait un montant disponible de $21,011,194.96, par comparaison avec $22,541,920.92 en 1945. Une baisse dans le taux moyen de l'intérêt gagné sur nos placements a plus que contre-balancé l'augmentation dans le chiffre moyen des placements mentionné au paragraphe précédent.

Conformément aux dispositions de l'article 31 (c) de la Loi sur la Banque du Canada, le montant total du surplus disponible provenant des opérations de la Banque a été versé au Receveur général et placé au crédit du Fonds du revenu consolidé.

LE TAUX DE LA BANQUE

Le taux de la Banque est demeuré fixe à 1½ pour cent en 1946. Comme au cours des années précédentes, les banques à charte n'ont guère eu l'occasion de nous demander des emprunts.

PERSONNEL

Le personnel de la Banque se chiffrait à 1,021 au 31 décembre 1946, soit 145 de moins qu'un an auparavant. La diminution est dans le service de la Dette publique, dont le travail est moindre depuis que l'émission des certificats d'épargne de guerre a cessé. Les membres du personnel ont accompli leurs devoirs avec énergie et loyauté au cours de l'année et je désire exprimer combien j'estime leur collaboration.

MARCHÉS DES VALEURS MOBILIÈRES

Les cours des fonds d'Etat à moyen et à long terme ont accusé une hausse rapide au Canada pendant les deux premiers mois de 1946 et les rendements sont tombés à un nouveau minimum, un mouvement semblable s'étant aussi produit à la même époque à New-York et à Londres. Le marché canadien est demeuré relativement stable le reste de l'année, l'émission au plus long terme du gouvernement du Dominion s'étant vendue à des prix donnant un rendement approximatif de 2.60 pour cent à comparer à celui de 2.90 pour cent à la fin de 1945. Le marché de Londres s'est affermi davantage pendant le dernier trimestre et à la fin de décembre le rendement sur l'émission à échéance fixe au plus long terme du gouvernement du Royaume-Uni était d'un peu moins que 2.40 pour cent, à rapprocher d'environ 2.95 pour cent un an auparavant. Aux Etats-Unis, les obligations du gouvernement n'ont conservé qu'une partie de leur hausse du début de l'année mais les rendements sont encore plus bas en ce pays qu'au Royaume-Uni ou au Canada.

Au Canada, les prix des obligations émises par les provinces, les municipalités et les corporations ont atteint à de nouveaux sommets en 1946, ce qui a créé une situation très favorable au remplacement des obligations à de meilleures conditions. De plus, le retour au pair du dollar canadien au milieu de l'année a supprimé la prime du change qui faisait obstacle au rappel des émissions comportant la faculté du payement à New-York, avec le résultat que sur le marché canadien les obligations remplacées à des taux plus bas au cours de 1946 ont atteint le double du volume de toute année antérieure.

Le tableau de l'appendice B fait ressortir qu'il y a eu en 1946, comparativement aux années de guerre, une énorme réduction dans le montant net des nouvelles émissions d'obligations canadiennes, moins les remboursements. Le montant des émissions en cours d'obligations du gouvernement fédéral payables en dollars canadiens, dont l'augmentation annuel les six années précédentes fut de $440 millions à $3,550 millions, n'a grossi que de 208 millions en 1946. Le montant des certificats de dépôt détenus par les banques fut encore réduit, comme en 1945. Naturellement, le montant net emprunté par l'Etat au cours d'une année diffère de la somme empruntée qu'il utilise pendant l'année de l'augmentation ou de la réduction de son solde en espèces; et une portion considérable des fonds employés en 1946 avait été prélevée lors de la campagne du dernier emprunt de la Victoire à la fin de 1945. Néanmoins, même sur la base de la somme nette utilisée des emprunts du Dominion au Canada, il y a eu une baisse de $2,600 millions en 1945 à $625 millions en 1946.

Le premier emprunt public d'après-guerre du gouvernement du Dominion s'est présenté sous la forme d'un nouveau titre, savoir l'obligation d'épargne du Canada. Ces obligations nominatives à dix ans sont émises en coupures de $50 à $1,000 et munies d'un coupon annuel à 2¾ pour cent, ce qui est un peu au-dessus du taux courant du marché. Toutefois, elles ne se vendent qu'aux particuliers et la même personne ne peut en détenir qu'au montant de $2,000. Les obligations sont remboursables sur demande à toute succursale de banque au Canada au pair plus l'intérêt.

L'obligation d'épargne du Canada a été conçue pour combiner les caractéristiques des obligations de la Victoire et des certificats d'épargne de guerre que les épargnants estiment le plus. Le but principal de cette émission est de continuer à faciliter l'habitude de l'épargne personnelle régulière contractée en temps de guerre. Durant la période initiale de la vente du 15 octobre au 15 novembre, environ 1,100,000 particuliers ont souscrit un total de $467 millions. Environ 600,000 employés ont souscrit selon le mode d'épargne par retenues sur le salaire, 200,000 autres personnes ont entrepris un programme d'épargne régulière selon le mode d'épargne mensuelle et 300,000 environ ont fait des achats au comptant. Les livres demeurent ouverts jusqu'à nouvel avis pour accommoder les personnes qui n'ont pu souscrire lors de la campagne initiale.

En 1946 le montant global des obligations en cours des provinces, comme de celles des municipalités et des corporations, a encore été réduit. Les nouvelles émissions d'actions ordinaires et privilégiées ont atteint le plus gros volume depuis nombre d'années mais ce volume a été surpassé par celui des remboursements d'actions privilégiées.

Bien qu'on dise que les achats à la bourse ces dernières années aient été dans une grande mesure au comptant, à la fin de janvier 1946 les prêts aux courtiers accusaient une hausse de 50 pour cent en quatre mois. Dans ces circonstances, les bourses ont jugé à propos d'exiger des marges plus élevées, soit un minimum de 50 pour cent, et une couverture de 100 pour cent pour les émissions à bas prix. A la fin de 1946 les prêts aux courtiers étaient de $49 millions, à rapprocher du sommet de $69 millions en janvier et à un niveau de $40-45 millions au milieu de 1945.

SITUATION MONÉTAIRE

En 1946, il n'y a pas eu d'expansion monétaire provoquée par des avances bancaires pour financer les besoins du gouvernement. Toutefois, le volume de l'argent a continué à monter, quoique à un rythme beaucoup plus lent, à mesure que le public convertissait l'actif liquide de ses obligations du gouvernement en comptes d'épargne.

Au cours de l'année, le gouvernement du Dominion a réduit de $250 millions le montant des certificats de dépôt détenus par les banques à charte. En outre, $177 millions d'obligations de la Victoire, détenus temporairement à la fin de 1945 relativement aux achats des clients sous le régime des modes officiels à tempérament, ont disparu du portefeuille des banques en 1946. Les prêts bancaires pour faciliter les souscriptions aux obligations de la Victoire (ou aux obligations d'épargne du Canada) à l'émission ont diminué de $136 millions au cours de l'année et les prêts à demande aux agents de change et aux courtiers de $116 millions. D'un autre côté, les banques à charte ont accru leurs prêts canadiens, en dehors des catégories ci-dessus, de $359 millions en 1946, acheté $473 millions de titres du gouvernement du Dominion (autres que les certificats de dépôt mentionnés plus haut) et ajouté à leurs portefeuilles $113 millions de valeurs autres que celles du gouvernement.

Les changements mentionnés au paragraphe précédent et l'augmentation de $58 millions dans les réserves bancaires indiquée à la page 3 ont eu pour effet net d'accroître l'actif des banques à charte de quelque $324 millions au cours de l'année. Cela explique en partie l'augmentation de $346 millions dans le total des dépôts bancaires canadien pendant la même période. Les dépôts d'épargne du public, à eux seuls, ont augmenté de $604 millions en 1946 et les dépôts à demande du public de $228 millions, tandis que les dépôts du gouvernement ont diminué de $511 millions.

Au Canada, comme dans la plupart des pays, le public préfère, depuis quelques années, conserver une partie de plus en plus forte de ses économies sous forme de dépôts portant intérêt. Les banques à charte n'ont pas toujours eu l'occasion d'employer ces fonds pour faire des prêts commerciaux; et pour arriver à payer l'intérêt sur leurs comptes d'épargne, elles se sont trouvées dans la nécessité de placer leur argent en valeurs du gouvernement à plus long terme et à meilleur rendement que les bons du Trésor et les certificats de dépôt ou autres émissions spéciales à court terme que le gouvernement leur vend directement.

Le rapport entre les comptes d'épargnes et le portefeuille d'émissions publiques du gouvernement s'établit, naturellement, d'une façon en grande partie automatique dans les pays où les banques qui s'occupent principalement de comptes d'épargnes ne font pas de prêts commerciaux. Dans le cas du Canada où les banques à charte s'occupent à la fois de comptes d'épargnes et de comptes commerciaux, un accord conclu avec le gouvernement au début de 1946 reconnaît le lien entre les comptes d'épargne et le portefeuille d'émissions publiques du gouvernement. Il a été convenu que leur portefeuille d'obligations directes et garanties du gouvernement du Dominion (à part les bons du Trésor, les certificats de dépôt et les billets du Trésor) ne dépasserait pas en moyenne plus de 90 pour cent du montant de leurs comptes d'épargne canadiens de particuliers. Il a été entendu également que le rendement desdites obligations ne rapporterait aux banques qu'un profit raisonnable en plus des frais de gestion de leurs comptes d'épargne.

Cet accord met les banques, en ce qui concerne leurs comptes d'épargne, à peu près dans la même situation que si elles étaient des institutions d'épargne conservant 10 pour cent de leurs dépôts sous forme d'espèces ou autres avoirs improductifs. Il s'ensuit également que les valeurs du gouvernement du Dominion détenues par les banques comme contrepartie des dépôts de comptes courants consistent nécessairement en bons du Trésor, certificats de dépôt, et billets du Trésor à court terme qui rapportent couramment $\frac{5}{8}$ de un pour cent d'intérêt par an.

L'accord est entré en vigueur le 31 mars 1946. Depuis, les banques à charte, dans leur ensemble, ont acheté un peu moins d'émissions publiques du gouvernement du Dominion qu'il ne serait nécessaire pour porter leur portefeuille à 90 pour cent du niveau croissant des comptes d'épargne du public. Cela indique que les banques ont eu l'occasion, au cours des récents mois, de faire un plus gros volume de prêts "commerciaux".

Sans compter les prêts relatifs aux achats d'obligations de la Victoire (et aux obligations d'épargne du Canada), nous estimons que les prêts au commerce ont presque augmenté de trois quarts durant l'année et ceux aux manufacturiers, en tant que groupe, de plus d'un tiers. Les prêts aux particuliers contre nantissement, et les "autres" prêts (principalement les prêts personnels) ont augmenté de plus de la moitié. En tenant compte des prêts personnels et des prêts aux particuliers pour les achats de valeurs, les banques ont probablement une plus forte proportion de prêts individuels, par opposition aux prêts commerciaux et autres, qu'à toute autre époque précédente.

RECONVERSION

Sous beaucoup de rapports, la transition de la guerre à la paix s'est effectuée d'une manière plus satisfaisante qu'on n'aurait pu l'espérer il y a deux ans. Depuis le jour de la victoire en Europe, 700,000 hommes et femmes ont été démobilisés et avec les usines, l'outillage et les 900,000 ouvriers employés à la production de guerre, ont été en très grande partie absorbés par des entreprises de temps de paix. Ce procédé de reconversion a exigé d'innombrables rectifications du point de vue industriel et particulièrement du point de vue humain, tandis que de sérieux arrêts de production locale au Canada et aux Etats-Unis ont restreint l'expansion du rendement civil dans une grande partie du pays. Mais en général les changements et les mises au point de cette période de transition ont eu lieu sans beaucoup réduire la production totale et sans causer de chômage sensible ou prolongé. Comme l'indique le tableau ci-dessous dressé par le Bureau fédéral de la statistique, les réductions dans les dépenses de guerre et dans les exportations (en partie financées par le gouvernement) ont été en grande partie compensées par un plus gros volume de placements privés et de plus gros achats de marchandises de consommation et de services. Cela a contribué à son tour à maintenir un haut niveau de production et de revenu, comme l'indique le second des tableaux ci-après.

Etant donné qu'il s'est produit une hausse dans les prix, le tableau ne fait pas suffisamment ressortir la légère diminution qui a eu lieu dans le volume de la production totale. Comme on le voit ci-dessous, le nombre des ouvriers au travail a diminué d'environ 7 pour cent du chiffre où la guerre l'avait fait monter en avril 1945, jusqu'en novembre 1946, qui est le dernier mois pour lequel sont publiées des statistiques complètes du travail. Cette réduction dans le volume de l'embauchage s'explique toutefois presque entièrement par des cessations volontaires de travail, attendu que le chiffre total du chômage en novembre n'accuse qu'une légère augmentation au-dessus de l'extrême minimum de temps de guerre. Il est vrai que dans certains endroits et certains genres de travail on manquait sérieusement de main-d'œuvre pendant qu'il y en avait un surplus ailleurs, mais en général la répartition de la main-d'œuvre qu'impliquait la reconversion s'est opérée relativement sans secousses.

PRIX

Un des principaux dangers de la période de reconversion a été que les prix et les coûts soient faussés par l'inflation d'après-guerre résultant du manque temporaire de marchandises d'un côté, et d'une grosse accumulation de demande, appuyée par les épargnes de temps de guerre, de l'autre côté. Une hausse excessive des prix et des coûts préparerait la voie pour une déflation ensuite. Elle produirait des effets inégaux sur les divers groupes économiques, et les bouleversements qu'elle entraînerait nécessiteraient de nouvelles mises au point avant de retrouver les bases d'une prospérité stable et bien équilibrée.

La hausse des prix au Canada depuis la fin de la guerre a été modérée. Malgré une réduction dans le payement des subsides du gouvernement, l'indice des prix généraux de gros, d'après le dernier calcul disponible qui est celui de décembre 1946, n'est que de 8 pour cent de plus que celui du jour de victoire sur le Japon, et l'indice du coût de la vie, seulement de 5 pour cent de plus.

	Août 1939	Août 1945	Décembre 1946
Prix généraux de gros	100	144	155
Prix de gros des aliments	100	151	158
Coût de la vie	100	120	126

Aux Etats-Unis, l'abandon des contrôles de bonne heure a été accompagné de beaucoup plus fortes hausses dans les prix qu'au Canada. En décembre, l'indice des prix généraux de gros accusait une hausse de 33 pour cent sur celui du jour de la victoire sur le Japon, par comparaison avec une hausse de 41 pour cent sur celui des six années précédentes. Les facteurs alimentaires de cet indice ont subi une hausse de 42 pour cent entre juin et décembre derniers. L'indice du coût de la vie a augmenté de 15 pour cent pendant la même période.

Prix généraux de gros	100	141	151	188
Prix de gros des aliments	100	158	168	238
Coût de la vie	100	131	135	156

* Les indices du Bureau fédéral de la statistique du ministère du Travail des Etats-Unis sont converties sur la base août 1939=100.

Quoiqu'il semble que les prix de quelques denrées aient atteint ou dépassé leur point culminant, la hausse dans les prix de beaucoup de denrées primaires n'est pas encore en rapport avec celle des produits transformés.

Pour différentes raisons techniques, les indices ci-dessus du Canada et des Etats-Unis n'offrent qu'une comparaison approximative. Néanmoins, il est clair que les prix aux Etats-Unis sont sensiblement supérieurs à ceux du Canada. Evidemment, cet écart ne pourrait pas durer longtemps, même si le Canada conservait les contrôles. Le retour du dollar canadien au pair du dollar des Etats-Unis en juillet dernier a diminué, sans la faire disparaître, la tendance à la hausse que subissaient les prix au Canada par suite de la hausse rapide dans le niveau des prix aux Etats-Unis.

Toutefois, un grand nombre d'observateurs des Etats-Unis s'attendent à une baisse considérable dans le cas de quelques-unes des augmentations de prix les plus extravagantes qui ont eu lieu en 1946. Si cela se produit, et si, d'une manière générale, les prix du Canada et ceux des Etats-Unis se rapprochent les uns des autres à un niveau plus raisonnable, les efforts du Canada pour effectuer en bon ordre sa transition de la guerre à la paix auront été couronnés de succès. Il est particulièrement important que le Canada sorte de la période de transition avec une armature de prix et de coûts qui ne retarde pas son expansion d'après-guerre, soit à l'étranger par des entraves à ses exportations, soit à l'intérieur par la création d'un manque d'équilibre entre les différents secteurs de son économie.

COMMERCE EXTÉRIEUR ET CHANGE ÉTRANGER

Parmi les principaux facteurs de notre prospérité actuelle, il faut compter le niveau élevé de nos exportations qui, en 1946, dépassaient presque deux fois et demi le total de 1938. Environ un tiers de nos exportations de 1946 ont été financées en vertu du programme du crédit à l'exportation du Canada. Sur les quelque $1,845 millions de crédits autorisés, il restait environ un milliard de dollars inutilisés à la fin de l'année.

Ce programme de crédit à l'exportation avait été conçu comme une mesure transitoire pour aider à soulager le manque effroyable de vivres et de fournitures essentielles dans les pays alliés, et pour permettre à nos acheteurs traditionnels au comptant de rétablir leurs finances. Il avait également pour but de nous assurer des débouchés pour le surplus de notre production pendant la période de transition. Sans crédits, une partie seulement, peut-être même une partie relativement modique, des marchandises dont l'exportation est ainsi financée, aurait pu être exportée contre payement comptant, ou utilisée au Canada.

Nos crédits à l'exportation font partie d'un vaste programme international qui comprend le Fonds monétaire international, la Banque internationale pour la reconstruction et le développement, les prêts extérieurs des Etats-Unis et le projet d'organisation internationale du commerce. L'objet de ce programme est de remettre sur pied et de ranimer le système multilatéral du commerce, dont dépendent tant la main-d'œuvre et les conditions d'existence au Canada. La quote-part du Canada représente un placement qu'il est dans son propre intérêt de faire. Mais ses crédits à l'exportation ne sont évidemment qu'une mesure de transition. Le Canada ne peut pas continuer indéfiniment à vendre à crédit sur les marchés d'outre-mer pendant qu'il contracte un gros déficit en espèces dans sa balance des payements envers les Etats-Unis.

Le Canada a eu un déficit dans son compte courant de transactions avec les Etats-Unis chaque année de 1926 à 1943. En 1944 et 1945 des facteurs spéciaux de guerre ont produit de légers surplus. La moyenne déficitaire au cours de ces vingt années est de $165 millions par an et les plus gros déficits (par exemple $437 millions en 1929) ont eu lieu pendant la prospérité des années de paix. Les seules années de paix pendant lesquelles nous nous sommes rapprochés de l'équilibre ont été des années de chômage, de stagnation et de faible importation, comme celles de 1933 à 1936.

En l'absence d'événements susceptibles d'apporter un gros changement dans la nature de nos relations commerciales avec les Etats-Unis, il est normal que notre compte courant avec les Etats-Unis ait une balance déficitaire et le déficit sera probablement plus gros en moyenne à l'avenir que par le passé. Toutes choses égales, la hausse qui s'est produite dans les prix mondiaux depuis le niveau d'avant-guerre grossira le volume du déficit. En outre, mieux nous réussirons à maintenir un haut niveau d'embauchage et de revenu, plus nous aurons tendance à importer des Etats-Unis. Les chiffres du commerce de ces derniers mois servent à nous rappeler cette tendance de façon tangible. Nos importations des Etats-Unis pendant le quatrième trimestre de 1946 se chiffrent à près de $430 millions par comparaison avec moins de $500 millions pendant l'année tout entière de 1937 et moins de $900 millions en 1929.

Dans une très grande mesure, cette grosse vague d'importations représente un remplissage de pipelines et une modeste accumulation de marchandises qui commencent maintenant à arriver en quantité sur le marché des Etats-Unis et qu'on ne peut pas encore obtenir ailleurs. A mon avis, c'est la disponibilité des marchandises, plutôt qu'une question de bon marché grâce à la baisse du taux du change, qui a donné lieu à ce mouvement, et il existe déjà des signes qu'il est arrivé à son faîte. Il est évident, néanmoins, que nous devons nous attendre à un niveau beaucoup plus haut d''importations des Etats-Unis qu'à toute autre période précédente de temps de paix. La perspective d'un plus gros volume d'exportations aux Etats-Unis dépend du résultat des prochaines négociations commerciales, autant que de la situation économique aux Etats-Unis.

Pendant la période de transition, tandis que nous faisons crédit en grande partie à nos clients d'outre-mer, nous serons obligés de combler le déficit de notre balance des payements envers les Etats-Unis au moyen de nos propres ressources. Heureusement, nous sommes arrivés à la fin de la guerre avec de grosses réserves de dollars des Etats-Unis. Cela nous permet maintenant d'appliquer le genre de mesures commerciales multilatérales non restrictives qu'il est si important pour nous de voir adopter par les autres pays. Il est toutefois évident que la réussite de ce programme dépend de la possibilité de nous procurer, en temps utile, suffisamment d'argent (c'est-à-dire des devises facilement convertibles) au moyen de notre commerce d'outre-mer pour acquitter nos engagements envers les Etats-Unis.

La mesure dans laquelle les pays d'outre-mer seront capables de payer comptant leurs importations nettes du Canada dépendra à son tour du temps qu'elles mettront à rétablir leur capacité de production et d'exportation à des marchés au comptant. En janvier 1947, le Royaume-Uni a pris l'heureuse décision de rendre le sterling dépensé dans certains pays, y compris le Canada, convertible en dollars des Etats-Unis. Il faut espérer qu'avec le temps d'autres pays seront en mesure de contracter des engagements du même genre, mais il ne faut pas en conclure que cela suffira pour résoudre tous nos problèmes de change. Tant que ces pays ne seront pas capables de produire et de vendre suffisamment sur d'autres marchés au comptant, ils seront probablement obligés de protéger leurs engagements par des restrictions sur leurs importations.

Il est généralement admis que tous les pays sont énormément intéressés à ce que la prospérité règne aux Etats-Unis et à ce que ce pays adopte un régime commercial avec le moins de restrictions possible. Et en outre, les événements contemporains démontrent amplement le haut degré de solidarité entre toutes les importantes nations commerciales du monde. Par exemple, le Royaume-Uni attend avec impatience le rétablissement de ses clients en Europe occidentale, pour obtenir d'eux soit les importations dont dépendent ses conditions d'existence et sa capacité d'exportation, soit des devises convertibles avec lesquelles il peut acheter ces importations ailleurs. Le Canada, comme les autres pays, est essentiellement intéressé à la situation économique des Etats-Unis, mais il est clair que le prochain retour du Royaume-Uni et de l'Europe occidentale à un haut degré de production nous est également de la plus grande importance.

Veuillez agréer, monsieur le ministre, l'expression de mes sentiments dévoués.

Le gouverneur,

G. F. TOWERS.

BANK OF CANADA

Annual Report to the Minister of Finance

OTTAWA, February 11, 1947.

The Hon. D. C. Abbott, K.C.,
Minister of Finance,
Ottawa.

Dear Sir,

In accordance with the provisions of the Bank of Canada Act Amendment Act, I am enclosing herewith in duplicate a statement of the Bank's accounts for the fiscal year 1946, signed by the Governor and the Chief Accountant, and certified by the Auditors, in the form prescribed by the by-laws of the Bank.

The major changes which took place in our various asset and liability accounts during the course of the year are indicated in the following table, which shows the effect of these changes on the cash reserves of the chartered banks.

NOTES IN CIRCULATION

The Bank of Canada note issue at the end of December, 1946 was $1,186,201,681, up $57,102,433 rom the same date a year before. Of the total mount of our notes outstanding, $1,009.3 millions vere held by the public, and $1,76.9 millions by he chartered banks. As will be seen from the table n Appendix A, the increase in notes held by the ublic was less in 1946 than in any year since 1938.

RESERVE

The asset account in our statement entitled "Ster- ng and U.S.A. Dollars" stood at $960,131 on Decem- er 31, 1946. This represented foreign exchange held or the account of foreign clients, and was balanced y a contra item "Liabilities Payable in Sterling, J.S.A. and Foreign Gold Currencies" of the same mount. The change during the year in this item id not, therefore, involve any variation in the cash eserves of the chartered banks.

INVESTMENTS

The Bank's holdings of Dominion and Provincial Government securities were $1,905,601,009 at December 31, 1946, having increased by $60,018,372 uring the year. Our government security purchases omewhat more than offset the effect on the char- red bank's cash reserves of increased public hold- gs of Bank of Canada notes and, taken in con- nction with the net decrease of $30.4 millions in Dominion Government and Other Deposits, were ainly responsible for the rise of $58.3 millions in ank cash shown in the table above. Since the hartered banks' Canadian deposits increased by 46 millions over the same period, their year-end tio of cash to deposits was slightly higher than in 45. However, this ratio, on a daily average basis, as 11.2 per cent for the year 1946 and for the onth of December, 1946, as compared with 11.4 r cent for the year 1945 and 11.5 per cent for the onth of December, 1945.

Other securities held by the Bank of Canada at ecember 31, 1946, amounted to $15,000,000, and consisted of one hundred and fifty thousand shares of the capital stock of the Industrial Development Bank. One hundred thousand shares were purchased in 1944 in accordance with the terms of Section 12, Sub-section (2) of the Industrial Development Bank Act. In 1946 we purchased a further fifty thousand shares under the same authority, in order to meet the Industrial Development Bank's increased capital requirements.

On the basis of the Wednesday figures published in our weekly statements, the Bank of Canada's total investments averaged $209 millions more in 1946 than in 1945.

PROFIT AND LOSS

The net profit from our operations in 1946, after providing for contingencies and reserves, was $21,-236,194.96. Payment of a dividend of $225,000 on capital stock held by the Minister of Finance left $21,011,194.96 available as compared with $22,-541,920.92 in 1945. A decline in the average rate of interest earned on our investments more than offset the increase in average holdings referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Under Section 31(c) of the Bank of Canada Act, the whole of the surplus available from our operations was paid to the Receiver General and placed to the credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

BANK RATES

Bank Rate remained unchanged during 1946 at 1½ per cent. As in previous years banks had little occasion to borrow from us.

STAFF

The staff of the Bank numbered 1,021 at December 31, 1946, a decline on the year of 145. This reduction is due to a lessening of the work of the Public Debt Division now that the issue of War Savings Certificates has been discontinued.

Members of the staff have carried out their duties energetically and loyally during the year, and I wish to record my appreciation of their co-operation.

SECURITY MARKETS

Medium and long term government bond prices rose sharply in Canada during the first two months of 1946, and yields fell to a new low, while a similar movement was taking place in New York and London. The Canadian market remained relatively stable over the rest of the year with the longest dated Dominion government issue selling at prices to yield approximately 2.60 per cent as compared with about 2.90 per cent at the end of 1945. The London market showed further strength in the last quarter, and at the end of December the yield on the longest United Kingdom government issue with a fixed maturity was slightly less than 2.40 per cent as compared with about 2.95 per cent a year before. In the United States, government bonds retained only part of their early rise, but yields remain lower in that country than in the United Kingdom or Canada.

Provincial, municipal and corporate bond prices rose to record levels in Canada during 1946 and created a situation very favourable to refinancing. In addition, the return of the Canadian dollar to par at mid-year removed the exchange deterrent to calling issues with a New York payment feature. As a result, the volume of bonds refunded to lower rates in the Canadian market during 1946 was more than twice as large as in any previous year.

A sharp break from the wartime years is evident in the table of net new Canadian bond issues, less retirements, which is given in Appendix B. Dominion government domestic bond issues outstanding, which showed annual increases ranging from $440 millions to $3,550 millions in the preceding six years, rose by only $208 millions in 1946. The amount of Deposit Certificates held by banks was again reduced, as in 1945. The net sum borrowed by the Dominion government in any year differs, of course, from the amount of borrowed money it actually uses during that year by the increase or decrease in its cash balance; and in 1946 there was a substantial use of funds which had been raised in the final Victory Loan campaign late in 1945. However, even on the basis of the Dominion's net utilization of money borrowed in Canada there was a drop from $2,600 millions in 1945 to $625 millions in 1946.

In the Dominion government's first post-war public financing a new security was offered—namely, Canada Savings Bonds. These 10-year registered bonds are issued in denominations from $50 to $1,000 and bear an annual coupon of 2¾ per cent, which is somewhat above the current market rate. However, they are sold only to individuals, and holdings are limited to $2,000 per person. The bonds are redeemable on demand at any branch bank in Canada at par plus interest.

The Canada Savings Bond was designed to incorporate those features of both Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates most desired by individual savers. The chief purpose of its issue is to facilitate the continuance of regular personal saving habits developed in wartime. During the initial selling period from October 15th to November 15th, about 1,100,000 individuals subscribed for a total of $467 millions. About 600,000 employed persons subscribed through the payroll savings plan, some 200,000 persons entered into a programme of regular saving under the monthly savings plan, and about 300,000 made cash purchases. The books will remain open until further notice to accommodate people who were not able to subscribe during the initial campaign.

During 1946 the totals of provincial, municipal and corporate bonds outstanding were again reduced. New issues of common and preferred stock reached the largest volume for many years, but were exceeded in amount by redemptions of preferred stock.

Although stock market buying in recent years is said to have been largely on a cash basis, at the end of January, 1946, brokers' loans were up by one-half from their level of four months before. In the circumstances the Stock Exchanges considered it wise to increase their minimum margin requirements to 50 per cent, with 100 per cent required on low-priced issues. At the end of 1946, brokers' loans were $49 millions as compared with the peak of $69 millions in January, and a level of $40-45 millions in the middle of 1945.

MONETARY CONDITIONS

In 1946 there was no monetary expansion arising out of direct bank financing of government requirements. However, the volume of money continued to rise, though at a greatly reduced rate, as the public converted some of its liquid assets from government securities into savings deposits.

During the course of the year the Dominion government reduced the amount of Deposit Certificates held by the chartered banks by $250 millions. In addition, $177 millions of Victory Bonds held temporarily at the end of 1945 in connection with customers' purchases under the official instalment plans, were eliminated from bank portfolios during 1946. Bank loans made to enable subscribers to purchase Victory (or Canada Savings) Bonds at the time of issue declined by $136 millions during the year, and call loans to brokers and dealers were reduced by $116 millions. On the other hand, the chartered banks increased their Canadian loans, excluding the categories mentioned above, by $359 millions during 1946, bought $473 millions of Dominion government securities (other than Deposit Certificates which have been mentioned above) and increased their non-governmental security holdings by $113 millions.

The net effect of the changes mentioned in the preceding paragraph, and the $58 millions increase in their cash reserves referred to above was to increase chartered bank assets by some $324 millions during the year. This roughly accounts for the increase of $346 millions in total Canadian deposits with the chartered banks which took place over the same period. Public savings deposits alone increased by $604 millions during 1946, and public demand deposits increased by $228 millions, while government deposits declined by $511 millions.

In Canada, as in most other countries, people have in recent years chosen to hold an increasing amount of their accumulated savings in the form of interest-bearing savings deposits. The chartered banks' scope for employing such funds in making commercial loans has been relatively limited; and in order to be able to pay interest on their savings deposits they have found it necessary to invest in Dominion government securities of a longer term and higher return than the Treasury Bills, Deposit Certificates or other special short term issues sold directly to them by the government.

The relationship between savings deposits and holdings of market issues of government bonds is, of course, largely automatic in countries where savings bank business is handled mainly by special non-commercial banking institutions. In the case of Canada where the chartered banks carry on both savings and commercial banking under one roof, an agreement was made with the government early in 1946 recognizing the link between savings deposits and holdings of market issues of government securities. The banks agreed that their investments in Dominion government direct and guaranteed issues (other than Treasury Bills, Deposit Certificates and Treasury Notes) would not average more than 90 per cent of the amount of their Canadian personal savings deposits. The banks also agreed that their earnings on such bonds should not exceed the cost of operating their savings business by more than a moderate profit margin.

The agreement places the chartered banks, in respect of their savings business, in approximately the same position as if they were separate savings institutions carrying 10 per cent of their deposits in the form of cash and other non-earning assets. It follows also that any Dominion government securities held by the chartered banks as the counterpart of current account deposits are necessarily limited to Treasury Bills, Deposit Certificates, and short term Treasury Notes which are currently bearing interest at ⅜ per cent per annum.

The agreement became effective on March 31, 1946. Since then the chartered banks as a whole have bought a little less in the way of Dominion government market issues than would bring their portfolios up to 90 per cent of the rising level of personal savings deposits. This reflects the opportunities which the banks have had in recent months to increase their "commercial" loans.

Excluding loans in connection with Victory (and Canada Savings) Bond purchases, we estimate that loans to merchandisers increased by nearly three-quarters during the year and to manufacturers as a group by more than one-third. Loans to individuals against securities, and "other" loans (mainly personal) increased by more than one-half. Taking into account both personal loans and loans to individuals to carry securities, the banks probably have a higher proportion of loans to individuals, as distinct from loans for business and other purposes, than at any previous time.

RECONVERSION

In many ways the transition from war to peace has taken place more successfully than could have been expected two years ago. Since VE Day, 700,000 men and women have been demobilized from the armed services, and with the plant, equipment, and 900,000 workers engaged in war production, have very largely been absorbed into peace-time work. This process of reconversion has required innumerable adjustments from an industrial and particularly a human point of view, and there have been serious localized stoppages of production in both Canada and the United States which have limited the expansion of civilian output over a wide area. But in general the shifts and adjustments of this transition period have taken place with a relatively small reduction in total output, and without substantial or prolonged unemployment.

As the following table from Dominion Bureau of Statistics data shows, the reductions in war expenditure and in exports (partly government financed) have largely been made up by increased private investment and increased expenditure for consumers' goods and services. This in turn has served to maintain production and income at a high level, as shown in the second of the following tables.

†Including the change in Wheat Board inventories.

‡Including the import content of expenditures shown in the table.

In so far as prices have risen, the above table tends to understate the slight shrinkage in the over-all physical volume of output which has taken place. As shown below, the number of people at work declined by about 7 per cent from the war-stretched total at April, 1945, to November, 1946, which is the latest month for which full labour force data are available. This reduction in the volume of employment was, however, almost entirely accounted for by voluntary withdrawals from the working force, since total unemployment in November was only slightly above its record low wartime level. It is true that there have been serious shortages of labour in some areas and occupations, while surpluses of labour existed in certain other cases, but in general the large redistribution of manpower involved in reconversion has taken place relatively smoothly.

PRICES

One of the principal dangers of the reconversion period has been that prices and costs would be distorted by post-war inflation resulting from temporary shortages of goods on one side and a great accumulation of demand, backed by war-time savings, on the other. Any excessive run-up of prices and costs would set the stage for a subsequent deflation. It would affect different economic groups very unequally, and the resulting distortions would necessitate fresh adjustments before the basis would exist for a balanced and stable prosperity.

Price increases in Canada since the end of the war have been moderate. Despite a reduction in government subsidy payments, the general wholesale price index on the latest available calculation, for December, 1946, was only 8 per cent higher than on VJ Day, and the cost of living index was only 5 per cent higher.

In the United States, early removal of controls was accompanied by much larger price increases than in Canada. By December, the general wholesale price index was 33 per cent higher than on VJ Day, as compared with a 41 per cent increase in the index over the preceding six years. The foods component of this index increased by 42 per cent between last June and December. The cost of living index increased by 15 per cent during the same period.

*Dominion Bureau of Statistics and U.S. Department of Labour indexes converted to the base Aug. 1939=100.

Although it would appear that United States prices of some commodities have reached or passed their peak, many primary commodity price increases have not yet worked their way through to the prices of end-products.

For various technical reasons the Canadian and United States indexes shown above are only roughly comparable. Nevertheless, it is clear that United States prices are substantially higher than Canadian ones at the present time. Obviously this spread could not be maintained indefinitely, even if controls were retained in Canada. The return of the Canadian dollar to parity with the United States dollar last July reduced but did not remove the upward pressure on Canadian prices arising out of the rapid increase in the United States Price level.

However, many observers in the United States are expecting a considerable reduction in the case of some of the more extravagant price increases which took place during 1946. If this occurs, and Canadian and United States prices in general come together at a less inflated level, Canada's efforts to make an orderly transition from war to peace will have borne fruit. It is particularly important that Canada should try to come through the transition period with a price and cost structure which will not be a drag on her post-war development, either externally through hampering her exports, or internally by creating a lack of balance among the various sectors of her economy.

FOREIGN TRADE AND EXCHANGE

One of the principal factors in our present prosperity is the high level of our exports, which in 1946 were nearly two and a half times the total for 1938. About one-third of our 1946 exports were financed under Canada's export credit programme. Out of total credits authorized of some $1,845 millions, about $1,000 millions remained unspent at the end of 1946.

This export credit programme was designed as a transitional measure to help relieve appalling shortages of food and essential supplies in Allied countries, and to assist our traditional cash customers to re-establish themselves as such. It was also designed to assure markets for our surplus products during the transition period. In the absence of the credits, only a part, perhaps only a relatively moderate part, of the goods whose exports is so financed could be exported for cash, or could be utilized in Canada.

Our export credits are part of a broad international programme involving the International Monetary Fund, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, United States foreign loans and the proposed International Trade Organization. The purpose of this programme is to rebuild and revitalize the multi-lateral trading system, on which Canada's employment and standard of living so greatly depend. Canada's part represents an investment which it is in her own self-interest to make. But her export credits are obviously a transition measure. Canada cannot continue indefinitely to sell on credit in overseas markets while she is incurring a substantial cash deficit in her balance of payments with the United States.

Canada has had a deficit in her current account transactions with the United States in every year from 1926 to 1943. In 1944 and 1945 there were small surpluses caused by special wartime factors. The average deficit over this twenty-year period was $165 millions a year and the largest deficits (for example $437 millions in 1929) occurred in years of peace-time prosperity. The only peace-time years in which there was an approach towards balance were years of unemployment, stagnation and low imports, such as 1933-6.

Unless some developments occur which would produce a major change in the character of our trading relationships with the United States, it will be normal for Canada to have a deficit in its current account balance of payments with the United States, and this deficit is likely to average higher in the future than it has in the past. Other things being equal, the rise in world prices from the pre-war level will increase the absolute size of the deficit. Moreover, the more successful we are in maintaining a high level of employment and income, the greater our tendency to import from the United States is likely to be. The trade figures of recent months are a tangible reminder of this tendency. Our imports from the United States in the fourth quarter of 1946 were about $430 millions as compared with less than $500 millions in the whole year 1937 and less than $900 millions in the whole year 1929.

To a considerable extent this upsurge of imports represents a process of filling up pipe lines and accumulating minimum stocks of goods which are just now becoming available in quantity in the United States market and are not yet available elsewhere. I believe it is a matter of availability of goods, rather than price considerations related to a lower exchange rate, which has prompted this movement, and there are already indications that the peak has been passed. Nevertheless it seems clear that we must contemplate a much higher level of imports from the United States than in any previous peace-time period. The prospects for a substantially higher level of exports to the United States depend on the outcome of the forthcoming trade negotiations, as well as on business conditions in the United States.

During the transition period, while our overseas customers are being financed largely on credit, we shall have to meet most of our balance of payments deficit with the United States out of our own resources. Fortunately we reached the end of the war with large United States dollar reserves. This gives us the opportunity to follow now the kind of multilateral non-restrictive trading policy which it is so greatly in our interest that other countries should adopt. It is obvious, however, that the successful functioning of this policy depends on our being able to realize, in due course, sufficient cash (i.e. freely convertible currency) from our overseas trade to meet our requirements in the United States.

The extent to which overseas countries can pay cash for their net imports from Canada will depend in turn on how soon they can restore their capacity to produce and to export to cash markets. In January, 1947, the United Kingdom took the welcome step of making current sterling spent in certain countries, including Canada, convertible into United States dollars. It is to be hoped that as time goes on other countries will be able to undertake similar obligations, but we should not conclude that this alone would solve all our exchange problems. Unless such countries are able to produce and sell enough in other cash markets, their undertaking might have to be maintained through limitation of imports.

It is a commonplace that all countries have a tremendous stake in the maintenance of prosperity in the United States and the adoption of a liberal trade policy by that country. Further than this, contemporary events vividly illustrate the high degree of inter-dependence among all the important trading countries of the world. For example, the United Kingdom anxiously awaits the recovery of its important customers in Western Europe, so that it can obtain from them either the imports upon which its standard of living and export capacity depend, or convertible currency with which it can purchase those imports elsewhere. Canada, like other countries, has a vital interest in the United States situation but it is clear that the early restoration of a high level of production in the United Kingdom and Western Europe is also primary concern to us.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

G. F. TOWERS. Governor.

B. When the application is for the purpose of amending an existing Act,—

108. No petition praying for the incorporation of a Railway Company, or of a Canal Company, or for an extension of the line of any existing or authorized railway or canal, shall be considered by the Standing Orders Committee, until there has been filed with the Committee a map or plan, showing the proposed location of the works, and each county, township, district or municipality through which the proposed railway or canal, or any branch or extension thereof, is to be constructed.

110. Petitions for private bills shall only be received by the Senate if filed with the Clerk of the Senate within the first six weeks of the Session, and every private bill originating in the Senate shall be presented to the Senate within two weeks after the petition therefor has been favourably reported upon by the examiner of petitions or by the Committee on Standing Orders, and no motion for the suspension of this standing order shall be entertained unless a report has been first made by the Committee on Standing Orders recommending such suspension.

Petitions for Private Bills

92. 97. No petition praying for the incorporation of a railway company, or of a canal company, or for

(4) When a Bill increases the capital stock of an existing company, the additional charge shall be according to the foregoing tariff, upon the amount of the increase only.

(6) If any increase in the amount of the proposed capital stock or borrowing powers of a company is made at any stage of a Bill, such Bill shall not be advanced to the next stage until the charges consequent upon such change have been paid.

(7) In this Standing Order the term "proposed capital stock" includes any increase thereto provided for in the Bill and where power is taken in a Bill to increase at any time the amount of the proposed capital stock, the additional charge shall be levied on the maximum amount of such proposed increase which shall be stated in the Bill.

(8) The additional charges provided for in this Standing Order shall also apply to Private Bills originating in the Senate; provided, however, that if a petition for any such Bill has been presented in this House within the first six weeks of the session, the additional charges made under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (3) shall not be levied thereon.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of Incorporation, where a form of Model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with a Model Bill (copies of Model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined and shall be so printed.

(3) Where a Private Bill amends any section, subsection or paragraph of an existing Act, such section, subsection or paragraph shall be repealed in the text of the Bill and be re-enacted as proposed to be amended, the new matter being indicated by underlining; and the section, subsection or paragraph which is to be so repealed, or so much thereof as is essential, shall be printed in the right hand page opposite such section, subsection or paragraph.

(4) When a Private Bill repeals an existing section, subsection or other minor division of a section, that section, subsection or division, or so much thereof as is essential, shall be printed opposite the clause.

SÉNAT

Avis de bills privés

107. Toute demande adressée au Parlement pour obtenir un bill privé doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande, être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et désigner l'adresse de signataires; et si la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi en constitution de corporation, l'avis doit aussi mentionner le nom de la compagnie dont la constitution est projetée.

Outre l'avis dans la Gazette du Canada, comme susdit, pareil avis doit être donné de la façon suivante:

(A) Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation:

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité, ville ou village de chaque comté ou district par où doit passer le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la constitution est projetée;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire dans lequel la compagnie se propose d'eexrcer des opérations;

3. Une compagnie ayant pour objet l'exécution d'entreprises dont l'exécution ou l'exploitation pourrait spécialement affecter une localité particulière, ou cherchant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou voulant accomplir toute affaire ou chose dont l'accomplissement affecterait les droits ou propriétés d'autrui—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits particuliers que le projet de loi peut affecter;

4. Une compagnie de banque; compagnie d'assurance; compagnie fiduciaire; compagnie de prêt, ou compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement;

5. Et si les entreprises d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarées d'utilité publique au Canada, cette intention doit être expressément mentionnée dans l'avis; et les requérants doivent adresser une copie de cet avis, sous pli recommandé, au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale pouvant être particuièrement affectée par l'exécution ou l'exploitation de ces entreprises, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle des entreprises sont ou peuvent être situées; et la preuve de l'observation de cette prescription par les requérants doit être établie par une déclaration statutaire.

(B) Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier une loi existante:

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient—l'avis doit être le même mutatis mutandis que celui pour l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal;

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement, d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres entreprises déjà autorisées—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a ou est autorisée à avoir son siège social;

3. Afin d'élargir les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans comporter attribution de droits exclusifs); d'accroître ou de réduire le capital social d'une compagnie; ou d'augmenter ou modifier son pouvoir d'émettre des obligations ou ses autres pouvoirs d'emprunt; ou de présenter un amendement pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou aux intérêts des actionnaires, des détenteurs d'obligations ou des créanciers de la compagnie—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de son siège social.

Des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis doivent être adressés au greffier du Sénat et porter la mention; "Avis de bill privé"; au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire attestant que l'avis a été régulièrement publié peut être adressée au greffier du Sénat.

Tout avis adressé sous pli recommandé doit être mis à la poste à temps pour parvenir au secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale deux semaines au moins avant l'examen de la pétition par le comité des ordres permanents; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait de la mise à la poste doit être transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition demandant la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou le prolongement de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ne doit être étudiée par le comité des ordres permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé de l'entreprise, ainsi que chaque comté, canton, district ou municipalité par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement dont la construction est projetée.

110. Toute pétition tendant à obtenir un bill privé ne sera reçue par le Sénat que si elle a été déposée chez le greffier du Sénat au cours des six premières semaines de la session; et tout bill privé introduit au Sénat doit être présenté au Sénat dans un délai de deux semaines après que l'examinateur des pétitions ou le comité des ordres permanents aura fait un rapport favorable à la pétition se rapportant à ce bill; et aucune motion demandant la suspension du présent ordre permanent ne sera prise en considération à moins que le comité des ordres permanents n'ait au préalable présenté un rapport recommandant pareille suspension.

114. Toute personne qui désire présenter un bill privé doit remettre au greffier du Sénat, s'il est projeté que le bill prenne naissance au Sénat, une copie du bill en anglais ou en français, avec un montant suffisant pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les fonctionnaires du Sénat; elle doit aussi payer les frais d'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français. Le requérant doit pareillement verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant sa mise à l'étude par le comité auquel il est renvoyé, la somme de deux cents dollars avec les frais d'impression de la loi pour l'incorporer dans les Statuts; et il doit remettre au greffier de ce comité un reçu de ce versement.

La taxe à acquitter lors de la deuxième lecture d'un bill n'est payée qu'à la Chambre où le bill est présenté.

Modèle d'un bill amendant une loi

(2) Dans le texte du bill, sur la page de gauche, le nouveau texte doit être indiqué par les signes typographiques les plus appropriés à chaque cas; crochets, italique, texte souligne, astérisques, etc. En regard de chaque clause, sur la page de droite, le texte amendé par le bill, ou la partie importante de ce texte, doit être imprimée, et les changements projetés doivent y être indiqués de la manière prévue ci-dessus.

(3) Lorsqu'une clause abroge un article existant, un paragraphe ou une autre disposition d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre disposition, ou la partie qui en est importante, doit être imprimée en regard de la clause.

(4) Un mémoire du rédacteur expliquant brièvement les motifs de chaque clause doit être annexé au bill, ou distribué avec le bill. Lorsque possible, le mémoire doit être imprimé sur la page de droite du bill, en paragraphes placés en regard des clauses visées, et portant un numéro correspondant.

(5) Les règles ci-dessus s'appliquent, autant, que possible, à la réimpression des bills.

L. C. MOYER,
Greffier du Sénat.

CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES

EXTRAIT DU RÈGLEMENT DE LA CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES TOUCHANT LA PUBLICATION DES AVIS

95. (1) Toute pétition introductive de bill privé de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada. Cet avis doit exposer clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet du bill projeté; il doit être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom, avec indication de l'adresse des signataires. Si la pétition tend à une loi de constitution en corporation, l'avis doit mentionner le nom de la compagnie projetée. Si les travaux d'une compagnie, qu'elle soit constituée en corporation ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer en corporation, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les pétitionnaires doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité que la construction ou la mise en œuvre de ses ouvrages peut intéresser, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province où ces mêmes ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Tout avis ainsi expédié par lettre recommandée doit être mis à la poste assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être renvoyé. La preuve que les requérants se sont conformés à cette règle s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

(2) Outre l'avis devant figurer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable dans quelque journal important, comme suit:

(A) 1. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district que doit traverser le chemin de fer ou le canal projeté;

2. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque province au territoire où la compagnie en question se propose d'établir son service;

3. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie créée en vue de la construction de tous ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en œuvre pourrait intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de tous droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou aux biens d'autrui, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans les diverses localités où la loi projetée pourrait porter atteinte aux affaires, droits ou biens d'autres personnes ou compagnies;

4. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une compagnie de fiducie, une compagnie de prêts ou une compagnie industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

(B) 1. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prolongement de tout chemin de fer ou canal ou de la construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district devant être desservi par ce prolongement ou cet embranchement.

2. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prorogation du délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement de toute ligne de chemin de fer, de tout embranchement ou prolongement de ligne de chemin de fer, de tout canal, de tout réseau télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou de tout ouvrage déjà autorisé il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque district intéressé.

3. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de la continuation d'une charte ou de l'extension des pouvoirs d'une compagnie (quand elle ne comporte pas la concession de droits exclusifs); ou en vue de l'augmentation ou de la réduction du capital-actions d'une compagnie quelconque; ou en vue de l'accroissement ou de la modification de sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de contracter des emprunts d'un autre genre; ou encore en vue de toute modification touchant aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où est situé le siège social de la compagnie ou à l'endroit où la compagnie est autorisée à établir son siège social.

(C) Lorsque la pétition a pour objet d'obtenir, pour quelque personne ou corporation existante, des droits ou privilèges exclusifs ou encore la faculté d'accomplir une chose dont la mise en œuvre intéresserait les droits ou biens d'autrui, il est publié un avis dans les localités où les affaires, les droits ou les biens d'autrui peuvent être spécialement compromis par la loi projetée.

(3) Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine durant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la pétition prend naissance dans la province de Québec ou dans la province du Manitoba, l'avis en doit être publié en anglais dans un journal anglais et en français dans un journal français, ainsi qu'en anglais et en français dans la Gazette du Canada. S'il n'y a pas de journal dans la localité où il faut annoncer ladite pétition l'avis doit être publié à l'endroit le plus rapproché où est imprimé un journal. La preuve que l'avis en question a été dûment publié s'établit, dans chaque cas, par voie de déclaration statutaire. Toute déclaration de cette nature doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre, et elle doit porter au dos l'indication: "Avis de bill privé".

92. Nulle pétition introductive de bill privé n'est reçue par la Chambre si elle n'est pas présentée dans les six premières semaines de la session. Tout bill privé prenant naissance à la Chambre des communes doit y être présenté dans les deux semaines qui suivent le jour où la pétition a été rapportée favorablement par l'examinateur des pétitions ou par le comité du Règlement. Nulle motion portant suspension du présent article ne peut être accueillie à moins que le comité du Règlement n'ait préalablement présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension, en y consignant les motifs de sa décision.

97. Nulle pétition portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie se proposant d'exploiter un canal, ou portant prolongement d'une ligne de chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ou portant construction d'un embranchement, de voie ferrée ou de canal, ne sera prise en considération par l'examinateur, ou par le comité du Règlement, tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé entre les mains dudit examinateur une carte ou un plan indiquant l'endroit où se trouveront ces ouvrages, et chaque comté, canton, municipalité ou district à travers lequel le chemin de fer, le canal, le prolongement ou l'embranchement projeté doit être construit.

Bills privés

93. (1) Quiconque désire obtenir un bill privé doit déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au plus tard le premier jour de la session, une copie de ce bill en anglais ou en français, ainsi qu'une somme suffisante pour en défrayer la traduction, qui est faite par le personnel de la Chambre, et l'impression, qui est exécutée par le département des impressions publiques.

(2) Le promoteur d'un bill privé doit, après la deuxième lecture de ce bill et ayant sa prise en considération par le comité qui en est saisi, défrayer l'impression de la loi dans le recueil des statuts et payer un droit de cinq cents dollars.

(i) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $2,000,000..	800
(j) Pour chaque million de dollars de capital-actions additionnel ou fraction de million..	200

(4) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation du capital-actions d'une compagnie existante le droit additionnel à débourser est basé sur le tarif précité, et il n'y est fait état que du montant de l'accroissement.

(5) (a) Lorsqu'un bill tend à l'augmentation de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie ou en comporte l'augmentation sans qu'il y ait accroissement du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est de trois cents dollars.

(b) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation à la fois du capital-actions et de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie, le droit additionnel est perçu sur les deux.

(6) Si, à quelque phase du bill, il y a augmentation du capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ou de sa faculté d'emprunt, le bill en question ne peut franchir une autre étape tant que ses promoteurs n'auront pas soldé les frais occasionnés par cette modification.

(7) Dans la présente règle, l'expression "capital-actions projeté" comprend toute augmentation de capital-actions prévue par le bill; et quand un bill porte faculté d'augmenter à quelque époque le chiffre du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est calculé sur le maximum de l'augmentation projetée, dont le bill fait mention.

(8) Les droits additionnels établis par la présente règle s'appliquent aussi aux bills privés qui ont pris naissance au Sénat; néanmoins, si la pétition introductive d'un bill privé de ce genre a été présentée à la Chambre des communes dans les six premières semaines de la session, les droits additionnels prévus aux alinéas (b) ou (c) du paragraphe 3 ne sont pas exigibles.

Du bill-type

96. (1) Le greffier en chef des bills privés remplit les fonctions d'examinateur des bills privés, et, comme tel, il est tenu d'étudier et de reviser tous les bills privés antérieurement à leur impression, en vue d'y établir une certaine uniformité, lorsque la chose est possible, et de s'assurer qu'ils ont été élaborés conformément aux articles du Règlement de la Chambre relatifs aux bills privés.

(2) Tout bill tendant à la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie doit, lorsqu'il a été adopté une formule de bill-type, être rédigé en conformité de ce modèle, dont il peut être obtenu des exemplaires du greffier de la Chambre. Toute disposition d'un bill de ce genre qui n'est pas conforme au bill-type doit être insérée entre crochets ou soulignée, et elle doit être imprimée de la sorte.

(3) Lorsqu'un bill privé porte modification d'un article, paragraphe ou alinéa quelconque d'une loi existante, ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa doit être abrogé dans le texte du bill et reconstitué selon la modification que les auteurs du bill veulent y apporter, la nouvelle rédaction devant être soulignée. L'article, le paragraphe ou alinéa que les auteurs veulent faire abroger, ou encore ce qu'il renferme d'essentiel, doit être imprimé sur la feuille du côté droit en regard de ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa.

(4) Lorsqu'un bill privé tend à abroger un article, paragraphe ou autre partie d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre partie, ou encore ce qui s'y trouve d'essentiel, doit être imprimé en regard de l'article du bill.

CARTE DU PLAN ACCOMPAGNANT LE BILL

98. Nul bill portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, nul bill tendant à faire autoriser la construction d'embranchements ou de prolongements se rattachant à des lignes de chemins de fer ou à des canaux existants, nul bill portant modification de la route suivie par un chemin de fer ou un canal exploité par une compagnie déjà constituée en corporation ne doit être pris en considération par le comité des chemins de fer tant qu'il n'aura pas été produit devant ledit comité, au moins une semaine avant la prise en considération du bill, une carte ou un plan établi sur une échelle d'au moins un demi-pouce au mille, indiquant le territoire sur lequel il est question de construire les ouvrages projetés et aussi les ouvrages analogues qui y ont déjà été construits ou autorisés, ou qui intéressent la région ou la partie de région devant être desservie par les services projetés. Cette carte ou ce plan doit porter la signature de l'ingénieur ou de toute autre personne qui l'a dressé.

HÔTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT À OTTAWA

Le VENDREDI 3 mai 1946

PRÉSENT:

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR GÉNÉRAL EN CONSEIL

IL plaît à Son Excellence le Gouverneur général en conseil, sur la recommandation du ministre des Travaux publics et aux termes de l'article 7 de la Loi des passages d'eau, chapitre 68 des statuts revisés du Canada, 1927, de dresser les règlements ci-joints pour la régie du passage d'eau public sur la rivière Ottawa, entre Fitzroy, Ont., et Quyon (Onslow), P.Q., pendant la durée du permis émis en vertu du décret ministériel C.P. 1737, daté du 3 mai 1946, et lesdits règlements sont par les présentes dressés et établis en conséquence.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
Greffier du Conseil privé.

RÈGLEMENTS DE PASSAGE D'EAU
QUYON (ONSLOW), P.Q.—FITZROY, ONT.

Article premier

Les limites du passage d'eau doivent s'étendre de la ligne de démarcation entre les lots huit et neuf à la ligne de démarcation entre les lots dix-sept et dix-huit dans le troisième rang du canton d'Onslow, sur le côté de la rivière qui est dans la Province de Québec, et de Whitestone-Point au quai Quarry, sur le côté qui est dans la Province d'Ontario.

Article deuxième

L'adjudicataire doit fournir et entretenir, sur les deux côtés de la rivière, des débarcadères ou quais convenables, utilisables à toutes les phases du niveau de l'eau de la rivière, subordonnément à l'approbation du ministre des Travaux publics.

L'adjudicataire doit fournir et mettre en service sur ledit passage d'eau un vaisseau solide et navigable, mû par l'huile, la vapeur ou l'essence, et capable d'atteindre une vitesse d'au moins dix milles à l'heure. On peut se servir de chaloupes à rames pour le transport des passagers.

Le vaisseau doit avoir un commandant respectable et capable, ayant toutes les qualifications qui peuvent être requises par la Loi de la Marine marchande du Canada.

Le vaisseau doit être construit de manière à pouvoir donner un service adéquat et satisfaisant pour le transport des passagers, des voitures, des animaux et des marchandises; il doit être muni de ceintures de sauvetage et être parfaitement équipé pour donner le service qu'on en attend, et il doit être maintenu en parfait état de propreté, comme la chose est requise par la Loi de la Marine marchande du Canada.

Avant l'émission du permis, l'adjudicataire doit, à ses propres frais, obtenir d'un inspecteur qualifié de vaisseaux à vapeur un certificat attestant la navigabilité du vaisseau qui doit être mis en service en vertu dudit permis, et il doit déposer ce certificat au bureau du ministre des Travaux publics.

Il est loisible au ministre des Travaux publics de rejeter tout vaisseau qui pourrait être mis en service sur ledit passage d'eau en quelque temps que ce soit, ou de rejeter son commandant ou les débarcadères ou quais fournis par l'adjudicataire, s'il les considérait tous ou l'un d'eux respectivement, impropres au service ou incapables de satisfaire aux besoins du public.

Article quatrième

L'adjudicataire doit faire éteindre tous les feux des automobiles et faire arrêter les moteurs de ces dernières immédiatement après que chaque automobile aura pris place à bord du bateau passeur, et il doit voir à ce qu'ils soient maintenus dans cet état jusqu'à ce que le bateau soit amarré au quai ou débarcadère auquel il accoste.

Article cinquième

Pendant toute la durée du permis, depuis la débâcle du printemps jusqu'au 1er octobre de chaque année, le vaisseau doit faire la traversée chaque jour, de six heures du matin à neuf heures du soir. Du 1er octobre à la prise de la glace sur la rivière, à l'automne, le vaisseau doit faire la traversée de sept heures du matin à cinq heures du soir. Le vaisseau doit se rendre à l'appel chaque fois qu'on lui en donnera le signal durant les heures susmentionnées, et l'adjudicataire doit installer un système de signaux commode et efficace.

Article sixième

Des pancartes donnant les taux de passage et de péage sur ledit passage d'eau doivent être affichées et exhibées en tout temps, dans un endroit bien en vue sur les débarcadères ou près de ceux-ci, sur les deux côtés de la rivière, et aussi à bord du bateau passeur mis en service sur ledit passage d'eau.

Article huitième

Il est loisible au Gouverneur en conseil de changer ou de modifier l'horaire des traversées et le tarif des droits de péage susmentionné, s'il le juge expédient dans l'intérêt public. L'adjudicataire et les conseils du village de Quyon, P.Q., et du canton de Fitzroy, Ont., auront droit d'être entendus avant qu'un changement soit fait. Avis de ces changements ou modifications sera publié dans la Gazette du Canada, tel que prescrit à l'article 8 du chapitre 68 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1927, qui a pour titre: "Loi des passages d'eau", et l'adjudicataire en sera officiellement averti par le ministre des Travaux publics, et après la date de cet avis, l'adjudicataire doit mettre en vigueur l'horaire des traversées ainsi modifié et ne pas percevoir ou recevoir des droits de passage ou de péage autres ou plus élevés que ceux qui seront prescrits par le tarif ainsi modifié, et ce tant que ce tarif sera en vigueur.

Article dixième

Dans le cas où une somme due pour le permis, ou toute partie d'icelui resterait impayée vingt et un jours après la date d'échéance, ou dans le cas où l'adjudicataire manquerait à l'observance ou à l'accomplissement de l'une quelconque des dispositions, restrictions, conditions ou stipulations qui doivent être observées ou accomplies, ou dans le cas où l'adjudicataire, ou toute personne ou compagnie en faveur de qui le permis sera échu, par droit pour le moment, deviendrait insolvable, ou dans le cas où les stipulations de l'article 5 de la Loi du Dimanche ne seraient pas dûment observées et obéies par l'adjudicataire, alors, dans l'un quelconque des cas précités, il sera loisible au Ministre d'annuler ledit permis par un avis écrit envoyé à l'adjudicataire, et le permis deviendra alors absolument nul et non avenu.

On acceptera, au lieu des deux cautions, un cautionnement émis par une société de garantie autorisée, pour le montant spécifié dans le paragraphe précédent.

Article treizième

Ce permis ne doit pas être ni cédé ni transféré sans que l'autorisation du ministre des Travaux publics n'ait été obtenue, mais dans le cas du décès de l'adjudicataire, le permis passera à l'avantage de ses représentants personnels ou de ses légataires.

Article quatorzième

L'adjudicataire n'aura droit de réclamer aucune compensation pour des dommages qui pourraient lui être causés par la construction l'entretien et l'exploitation d'un pont quelconque ou de ponts quelconques qui pourraient en quelque façon que ce soit nuire à l'exploitation du passage d'eau consentie aux présentes. 8-3

4. Une compagnie de banque; compagnie d'assurance; compagnie fiduciaire; compagnie de prêt, ou compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement;

5. Et si les entreprises d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarées d'utilité publique au Canada, cette intention doit être expressément mentionnée dans l'avis; et les requérants doivent adresser une copie de cet avis, sous pli recommandé, au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale pouvant être particulièrement affectée par l'exécution ou l'exploitation de ces entreprises, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle des entreprises sont ou peuvent être situées; et la preuve de l'observation de cette prescription par les requérants doit être établie par une déclaration statutaire.

(B) Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier une loi existante:

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient—l'avis doit être le même mutatis mutandis que celui pour l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal;

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement, d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres entreprises déjà autorisées—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a ou est autorisée à avoir son siège social;

3. Afin d'élargir les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans comporter attribution de droits exclusifs); d'accroître ou de réduire le capital social d'une compagnie; ou d'augmenter ou modifier son pouvoir d'émettre des obligations ou ses autres pouvoirs d'emprunt; ou de présenter un amendement pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou aux intérêts des actionnaires, des détenteurs d'obligations ou des créanciers de la compagnie—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de son siège social.

Des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis doivent être adressés au greffier du Sénat et porter la mention: "Avis de bill privé"; au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire attestant que l'avis a été régulièrement publié peut être adressée au greffier du Sénat.

Tout avis adressé sous pli recommandé doit être mis à la poste à temps pour parvenir au secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale deux semaines au moins avant l'examen de la pétition par le comité des ordres permanents; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait de la mise à la poste doit être transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition demandant la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou le prolongement de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ne doit être étudiée par le comité des ordres permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé de l'entreprise, ainsi que chaque comté, canton, district ou municipalité par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement dont la construction est projetée.

110. Toute pétition tendant à obtenir un bill privé ne sera reçue par le Sénat que si elle a été déposée chez le greffier du Sénat au cours des six premières semaines de la session; et tout bill privé introduit au Sénat doit être présenté au Sénat dans un délai de deux semaines après que l'examinateur des pétitions ou le comité des ordres permanents aura fait un rapport favorable à la pétition se rapportant à ce bill; et aucune motion demandant la suspension du présent ordre permanent ne sera prise en considération à moins que le comité des ordres permanents n'ait au préalable présenté un rapport recommandant pareille suspension.

114. Toute personne qui désire présenter un bill privé doit remettre au greffier du Sénat, s'il est projeté que le bill prenne naissance au Sénat, une copie du bill en anglais ou en français, avec un montant suffisant pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les fonctionnaires du Sénat; elle doit aussi payer les frais d'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français. Le requérant doit pareillement verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant sa mise à l'étude par le comité auquel il est renvoyé, la somme de deux cents dollars avec les frais d'impression de la loi pour l'incorporer dans les Statuts; et il doit remettre au greffier de ce comité un reçu de ce versement.

La taxe à acquitter lors de la deuxième lecture d'un bill n'est payée qu'à la Chambre où le bill est présenté.

Modèle d'un bill amendant une loi

(2) Dans le texte du bill, sur la page de gauche, le nouveau texte doit être indiqué par les signes typographiques les plus appropriés à chaque cas; crochets, italique, texte souligné, astérisques, etc. En regard de chaque clause, sur la page de droite, le texte amendé par le bill, ou la partie importante de ce texte, doit être imprimé, et les changements projetés doivent y être indiqués de la manière prévue ci-dessus.

(3) Lorsqu'une clause abroge un article existant, un paragraphe ou une autre disposition d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre disposition, ou la partie qui en est importante, doit être imprimé en regard de la clause.

(4) Un mémoire du rédacteur expliquant brièvement les motifs de chaque clause doit être annexé au bill, ou distribué avec le bill. Lorsque possible, le mémoire doit être imprimé sur la page de droite du bill, en paragraphes placés en regard des clauses visées, et portant un numéro correspondant.

(5) Les règles ci-dessus s'appliquent, autant que possible, à la réimpression des bills.

L. C. MOYER,
Greffier du Sénat.

CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES

EXTRAIT DU RÈGLEMENT DE LA CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES TOUCHANT LA PUBLICATION DES AVIS

95. (1) Toute pétition introductive de bill privé de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada. Cet avis doit exposer clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet du bill projeté; il doit être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom, avec indication de l'adresse des signataires. Si la pétition tend à une loi de constitution en corporation, l'avis doit mentionner le nom de la compagnie projetée. Si les travaux d'une compagnie, qu'elle soit constituée en corporation ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer en corporation, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les pétitionnaires doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité que la construction ou la mise en œuvre de ses ouvrages peut intéresser, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province où ces mêmes ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Tout avis ainsi expédié par lettre recommandée doit être mis à la poste assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être renvoyé. La preuve que les requérants se sont conformés à cette règle s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

(2) Outre l'avis devant figurer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable dans quelque journal important, comme suit:

(A) 1. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district que doit traverser le chemin de fer ou le canal projeté;

2. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où la compagnie en question se propose d'établir son service;

3. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie créée en vue de la construction de tous ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en œuvre pourrait intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de tous droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou aux biens d'autrui, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans les diverses localités où la loi projetée pourrait porter atteinte aux affaires, droits ou biens d'autres personnes ou compagnies;

4. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une compagnie de fiducie, une compagnie de prêts ou une compagnie industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

(B) 1. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prolongement de tout chemin de fer ou canal ou de la construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district devant être desservi par ce prolongement ou cet embranchement.

2. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prorogation du délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement de toute ligne de chemin de fer, de tout embranchement ou prolongement de ligne de chemin de fer, de tout canal, de tout réseau télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou de tout ouvrage déjà autorisé il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque district intéressé.

3. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de la continuation d'une charte ou de l'extension des pouvoirs d'une compagnie (quand elle ne comporte pas la concession de droits exclusifs); ou en vue de l'augmentation ou de la réduction du capital-actions d'une compagnie quelconque; ou en vue de l'accroissement ou de la modification de sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de contracter des emprunts d'un autre genre; ou encore en vue de toute modification touchant aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où est situé le siège social de la compagnie ou à l'endroit où la compagnie est autorisée à établir son siège social.

(3) Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine durant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la pétition prend naissance dans la province de Québec ou dans la province du Manitoba, l'avis en doit être publié en anglais dans un journal anglais et en français dans un journal français, ainsi qu'en anglais et en français dans la Gazette du Canada. S'il n'y a pas de journal dans la localité où il faut annoncer ladite pétition, l'avis doit être publié à l'endroit le plus rapproché où est imprimé un journal. La preuve que l'avis en question a été dûment publié s'établit, dans chaque cas, par voie de déclaration statutaire. Toute déclaration de cette nature doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre, et elle doit porter au dos l'indication: "Avis de bill privé".

Pétitions introductives de bills privés

92. Nulle pétition introductive de bill privé n'est reçue par la Chambre si elle n'est pas présentée dans les six premières semaines de la session. Tout bill privé prenant naissance à la Chambre des communes doit y être présenté dans les deux semaines qui suivent le jour où la pétition a été rapportée favorablement par l'examinateur des pétitions ou par le comité du Règlement. Nulle motion portant suspension du présent article ne peut être accueillie à moins que le comité du Règlement n'ait préalablement présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension, en y consignant les motifs de sa décision.

97. Nulle pétition portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie se proposant d'exploiter un canal, ou portant prolongement d'une ligne de chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ou portant construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, ne sera prise en considération par l'examinateur, ou par le comité du Règlement, tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé entre les mains dudit examinateur une carte ou un plan indiquant l'endroit où se trouveront ces ouvrages, et chaque comté, canton, municipalité ou district à travers lequel le chemin de fer, le canal, le prolongement ou l'embranchement projeté doit être construit.

Bills privés

93. (1) Quiconque désire obtenir un bill privé doit déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au plus tard le premier jour de la session, une copie de ce bill en anglais ou en français, ainsi qu'une somme suffisante pour en défrayer la traduction, qui est faite par le personnel de la Chambre, et l'impression, qui est exécutée par le département des impressions publiques.

(2) Le promoteur d'un bill privé doit, après la deuxième lecture de ce bill et avant sa prise en considération par le comité qui en est saisi, défrayer l'impression de la loi dans le recueil des statuts et payer un droit de cinq cents dollars.

FRAIS ADDITIONNELS

(3) En sus des frais précités, les droits suivants doivent être imposés et payés:

(a) Lorsqu'il y a suspension d'un article du Règlement relativement à un bill ou à la pétition introductive qui s'y rattache. $ 100

(b) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la huitième semaine et avant l'expiration de la douzième semaine de la session.. 100

(c) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la douzième semaine de la session. 200

(d) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ne dépasse pas $250,000.. .. 100

(e) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $250,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $500,000.. 200

(f) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $750,000.. 300

(g) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $750,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,000,000.. 400

(h) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,000,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,500,000.. 600

(i) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $2,000,000.. 800

(j) Pour chaque million de dollars de capital-actions additionnel ou fraction de million.. 200

(4) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation du capital-actions d'une compagnie existante le droit additionnel à débourser est basé sur le tarif précité, et il n'y est fait état que du montant de l'accroissement.

(5) (a) Lorsqu'un bill tend à l'augmentation de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie ou en comporte l'augmentation sans qu'il y ait accroissement du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est de trois cents dollars.

(b) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation à la fois du capital-actions et de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie, le droit additionnel est perçu sur les deux.

(6) Si, à quelque phase du bill, il y a augmentation du capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ou de sa faculté d'emprunt, le bill en question ne peut franchir une autre étape tant que ses promoteurs n'auront pas soldé les frais occasionnés par cette modification.

(7) Dans la présente règle, l'expression "capital-actions projeté" comprend toute augmentation de capital-actions prévue par le bill; et quand un bill porte faculté d'augmenter à quelque époque le chiffre du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est calculé sur le maximum de l'augmentation projetée, dont le bill fait mention.

(8) Les droits additionnels établis par la présente règle s'appliquent aussi aux bills privés qui ont pris naissance au Sénat; néanmoins, si la pétition introductive d'un bill privé de ce genre a été présentée à la Chambre des communes dans les six premières semaines de la session, les droits additionnels prévus aux alinéas (b) ou (c) du paragraphe 3 ne sont pas exigibles.

Du bill-type

96. (1) Le greffier en chef des bills privés remplit les fonctions d'examinateur des bills privés, et, comme tel, il est tenu d'étudier et de reviser tous les bills privés antérieurement à leur impression, en vue d'y établir une certaine uniformité, lorsque la chose est possible, et de s'assurer qu'ils ont été élaborés conformément aux articles du Règlement de la Chambre relatifs aux bills privés.

(2) Tout bill tendant à la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie doit, lorsqu'il a été adopté

une formule de bill-type, être rédigé en conformité de ce modèle, dont il peut être obtenu des exemplaires du greffier de la Chambre. Toute disposition d'un bill de ce genre qui n'est pas conforme au bill-type doit être insérée entre crochets ou soulignée, et elle doit être imprimée de la sorte.

(3) Lorsqu'un bill privé porte modification d'un article, paragraphe ou alinéa quelconque d'une loi existante, ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa doit être abrogé dans le texte du bill et reconstitué selon la modification que les auteurs du bill veulent y apporter, la nouvelle rédaction devant être soulignée. L'article, le paragraphe ou alinéa que les auteurs veulent faire abroger, ou encore ce qu'il renferme d'essentiel, doit être imprimé sur la feuille du côté droit en regard de ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa.

(4) Lorsqu'un bill privé tend à abroger un article, paragraphe ou autre partie d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre partie, ou encore ce qui s'y trouve d'essentiel, doit être imprimé en regard de l'article du bill.

CARTE OU PLAN ACCOMPAGNANT LE BILL

98. Nul bill portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, nul bill tendant à faire autoriser la construction d'embranchements ou de prolongements se rattachant à des lignes de chemins de fer ou à des canaux existants, nul bill portant modification de la route suivie par un chemin de fer ou un canal exploité par une compagnie déjà constituée en corporation ne doit être pris en considération par le comité des chemins de fer tant qu'il n'aura pas été produit devant ledit comité, au moins une semaine avant la prise en considération du bill, une carte ou un plan établi sur une échelle d'au moins un demi-pouce au mille, indiquant le territoire sur lequel il est question de construire les ouvrages projetés et aussi les ouvrages analogues qui y ont déjà été construits ou autorisés, ou qui intéressent la région ou la partie de région devant être desservie par les services projetés. Cette carte ou ce plan doit porter la signature de l'ingénieur ou de toute autre personne qui l'a dressé.

CANADIAN ARMY ORDERS

AHQ, Ottawa,
10th March, 1947.

The following regulations, orders, etc, have been approved and are promulgated and issued to the Canadian Army.

63-1—COURTS OF INQUIRY—JOINT—NAVY, ARMY AND AIR FORCE —63-1

1. Under authority of The Militia Act, the Naval Service Act, 1944 and the Royal Canadian Air Force Act, His Excellency the Governor-in-Council has been pleased to order as follows:—

(a) Joint courts of inquiry composed of officers of the Naval Forces of Canada, the Canadian Army, and the Royal Canadian Air Force, or from any combination of them, may be appointed to investigate flying accidents or breaches of flying orders involving personnel or property of more than one Service. Any such court shall make findings and recommendations on all matters with which a court of inquiry, board of officers, or investigating officer of any of the Services concerned would normally have dealt.

(b) Any court appointed under the authority of this Order to investigate a specific accident or breach of flying orders shall be deemed to fulfil the requirements of the regulations of the Services participating with regard to investigation into that particular accident or breach of flying orders.

(c) Notwithstanding the regulations of any of the Services involved, the constitution and procedure of joint courts of inquiry shall be governed by the regulations attached as Appendix "A".

APPENDIX "A"

1. Assembly and Appointment—A joint court of inquiry composed of officers of the Naval Forces of Canada, the Canadian Army, and the Royal Canadian Air Force, or any combination of them, shall be appointed to investigate a flying accident or breach of flying orders involving personnel or property of more than one Service, unless such accident or breach is of a trivial nature.

2. Assembling Authority—The senior officer of the Service to which the captain of the aircraft belongs, in charge of the area where the accident occurs, shall state the terms of reference and appoint the president and, if considered advisable, a junior member of the court, and request the corresponding officer of the other Service or Services to appoint one member each, all of which appointments shall be made promptly; but where aircraft of more than one Service are involved, that Service to which the senior of the captains of aircraft belongs shall initiate the proceedings as above.

3. Technical Cases—Where the investigation may involve technical or professional knowledge or skill, the officer initiating the proceedings (hereafter referred to as the "assembling authority") shall ensure that one member of the court has the appropriate qualifications.

4. Reputation of Officer Affected—Where the reputation of an officer may be affected, or he might be shown to have been in any way at fault, the president shall not be junior in rank to that officer.

5. Investigation of Several Matters—Where several matters for each of which a court of inquiry would normally have to be appointed arise out of the same occurrence, the assembling authority should assemble one joint court to investigate and report on all these matters, or he may, if the circumstances warrant, assemble two or more joint courts.

6. Terms of Reference—The assembling authority shall provide the court with written terms of reference stating briefly the matters to be investigated and what matters are to be covered in the findings or recommendations.

7. Duty to Obtain Evidence—(1) The president of the court shall so far as practicable before the first sitting ascertain the names of any material witnesses and arrange for their appearance before the court.

(2) The court shall investigate the circumstances to a finality by hearing and cross-questioning the witnesses, obtaining evidence from any other witnesses who may be suggested as the investigation develops, visiting if advisable the scene of the occurrence, and obtaining any data or material that may throw light on the subject of investigation.

(3) Relevant documents shall be identified by a witness wherever practicable and attached as exhibits to the original proceedings, and photographic copies or, if that is impracticable, certified true copies of each exhibit shall be attached to each copy of the proceedings.

8. Time and Place of Assembly—(1) Unless the assembling authority otherwise directs, the president shall fix the time and place for the court to assemble, and give notice of the time and place to all members of the court, witnesses, and other persons interested.

(2) The court may be re-assembled by the president as often as necessary to examine further the witnesses, or examine additional witnesses or things, or to make any additional findings or recommendations.

9. Closed Court—The public shall be excluded from the court and, subject to paragraph 16, witnesses shall only be allowed in the court while actually giving their evidence.

10. Swearing Witnesses—(1) Unless the assembling authority otherwise directs, the evidence shall not be taken on oath, but where the evidence at any stage appears likely to affect the reputation of a member of the Forces, or to show him to have been in any way at fault in connection with any of the matters being investigated, that member of the Forces may require that this evidence be given under oath.

(2) Where the evidence is given under oath, the president shall administer the following oath to the witness or if the witness objects to an oath the folowing solemn declaration:

Oath

"I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give to this Court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

Solemn Declaration

"I solemnly declare that the evidence which I shall give to this Court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

11. Civilian Witnesses—The court may request but cannot compel a civilian witness to attend or make a statement or give evidence. Where a civilian witness declines to attend, the court shall request him to make a written statement and, if he does, include it in the proceedings.

12. Evidence—While the court is not bound by technical rules of evidence and may receive any relevant evidence in carrying out the investigation, nevertheless the court should weigh carefully the value and reliability of any testimony and document which would not be admissable in a court of law.

13. Recording Evidence—(1) The evidence shall be recorded in narrative form in the first person, except where the court thinks fit to record any particular questions and answers.

(2) A witness shall sign his evidence at the end and at the foot of every page and shall initial any alterations.

14. Members to Hear All The Evidence—The president and all members of the court shall hear all the evidence. The findings of the court shall be based on the evidence given and the exhibits and documents produced before the court and any view of any place that may have been taken by the court.

15. Professional Advisers Not Permitted—Unless the assembling authority otherwise directs, a professional or other adviser shall not be permitted in court.

16. Where Reputation Affected or Fault—(1) Where during the hearing evidence is introduced which appears likely to affect the reputation of a member of the Forces, or to show him to have been in any way at fault in connection with any of the matters being investigated, he shall be afforded every reasonable opportunity to be present from the time this evidence is introduced.

(2) Whenever the member of the Forces is present in court, he shall be afforded an oportunity to cross-examine any witness whose evidence is given in his presence, to produce any witnesses or offer any evidence on his own behalf, and he may answer or refuse to answer any question put to him. The president shall explain his rights to him when he first appears in court.

(3) Where the member of the Forces is unable to be present during the whole or any part of the hearings, the court shall inform him of any evidence introduced during his absence in so far as it affects his reputation or shows him to have been in any way at fault. The court shall accept any written statement in denial, exculpation, explanation, or otherwise, which he tenders, and shall attach it to the proceedings.

17. Admission of Liability—Neither the court nor any member of it shall make any admission of liability or give any undertaking that might prejudice or affect any right of the Crown.

18. Claim Against the Crown—(1) Where it appears to the court that civilian persons or property have been damaged through the act or omission of a member of the Forces or servant of the Crown, the court shall ask the civilian concerned whether or not he intends to make a claim against the Crown and, if he does so intend, request him to submit an itemized statement. The court shall inform him at the same time that this request is entirely without prejudice and is not to be considered as an admission of liability on the part of the Crown.

(2) The court shall investigate the alleged damage, obtaining as far as practicable the evidence of independent witnesses, and shall certify in their findings whether or not the claim is considered fair and reasonable.

(3) Where the claim is not certified as fair and reasonable, the court shall state in the findings

(a) in what respect the claim is considered excessive, and

(b) what amount is considered fair and reasonable.

(4) The court shall make a specific finding as to whether the member of the Forces or servant of the Crown mentioned in (1) of this paragraph was or was not on duty at the time.

19. Findings—(1) The court shall make findings and recommendations on all matters required by the terms of reference and, where applicable, by paragraph 18, and shall in any case make findings as to:

(a) where an accident is being investigated, its cause;

(b) whether or not local flying and aircraft maintenance orders were complied with;

(c) if a member of the Forces was killed or injured, whether or not he was on duty at the time, and whether or not he was to blame, and, if to blame, in what way and to what degree;

(d) the amount of the damage, if any, and whether anyone was to blame for it and, if to blame, in what way and to what degree; and

(e) any other matter with which a court of inquiry, board of officers, or investigating officer of any of the Services concerned would normally have dealt.

(2) Where it appears that a claim by the Crown might be made against anyone, the court shall, if the necessary information is immediately available, make the following additional findings:

(a) where a member of the Forces has been injured, the total cost of his medical treatment, including hospital costs, and the total amount of his pay and allowances, including any dependents' or married allowances, credited to him during his absence from duty as a result of the injury, and

(b) where public property has been lost or damaged, full particulars of the loss sustained by the Crown.

(3) The findings and recommendations shall be signed by the president and all members of the court, except that a member dissenting in whole or part may make dissenting findings or recommendations, which he shall sign.

(4) The president shall initial each page of the proceedings and any alterations and identify each exhibit by his signature.

(5) The president shall send to the assembling authority the original and copies, certified by him as true, as follows:

(a) if two Services are involved, five copies, or

(b) if any other Service is involved, three copies for each additional Service.

(6) The assembling authority shall endorse his approval or comments on the original and all copies, and forward two copies to each Service involved. The corresponding officer of the other Service or Services involved shall endorse his approval or comments, and send copies to the other Service or Services. The findings and recommendations shall not be valid until so endorsed.

20. Incidental Matters—The assembling authority shall deal with all matters incidental to the proceedings, including claims by or against the Crown.

21. Privilege—The proceedings of the court are privileged and shall not be produced at a coroner's inquest, but the president of the court may, if so requested, furnish the coroner with a list of witnesses.

22. Admissability of Proceedings—Except upon the trial of a member of the Forces under The Naval Service Act, 1944, the Militia Act, or the Air Force Act, for wilfully giving false evidence before the court, the proceedings of the court or any confession, statement, or answer to a question made or produced at the hearings shall not be admissable in evidence against a member of the Forces, nor shall any evidence respecting the proceedings be given against him.

23. Persons Entitled to Examine Proceedings—Where anything in the proceedings of the court affects the reputation of a member of the Forces, or shows him to have been in any way at fault in connection with any of the matters investigated, he shall be entitled to examine a copy of the proceedings at any time.

24. Allowances for Civilian Witnesses—(1) Subject to (2) of this paragraph, a civilian witness who attends the court shall be entitled to the following fees and reimbursements:

(a) a fee of one dollar per day for every day of attendance at the court.

(b) if he resides more than three miles away from where he is requested to attend, reimbursement for his actual and reasonable travelling expenses at a rate not in excess of ten cents a mile each way, and his actual and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for meals or accommodation at a rate not in excess of five dollars per day.

(2) The fees and reimbursements prescribed in (1) of this paragraph shall be paid upon the president of the court certifying that the witness was required to and did attend to give evidence and that the claim is in his opinion correct.

(3) The Service to which the assembling authority belongs shall bear the cost of the fees and disbursements mentioned in this paragraph, and payment shall be made promptly in the manner prescribed in appropriate orders of that Service.

(4) Where it appears that a witness may be unwilling or unable to attend without first receiving the fees and expenses prescribed in (1) of this paragraph, the president of the court may authorize the advance of a sum within the limits and for the purpose set out in (1) of this paragraph.

25. Further Regulations—The Minister of National Defence, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, and the Minister of National Defence for Air may, under their joint authority, make regulations, not inconsistent with this Order or these Regulations, for the proper conduct of joint courts of inquiry.

(Military Division)

R62734 FS (now J96155 F/O) Alfred Roger Lacharite
51 Sqn (now retired)

"Flight Sergeant Lacharite was a member of the crew of an aircraft which was shot down over Holland on 25th July, 1941. He was captured by the Germans after landing by parachute, and taken first to Dulag Luft, and a month later to Stalag VIII B at Lamsdorf. By changing identities with a New Zealander, Flight Sergeant Lacharite managed to be sent out on a working party and made three escapes, all of which were eventually unsuccessful; although on the first occasion he was at liberty for three months and on the second and third occasions he reached Prague and the Polish border respectively. After the last attempt, his true identity was discovered and Flight Sergeant Lacharite was sent to Stalag Luft III at the end of July, 1942. Subsequently he engaged in tunnelling and other escape activities. In the autumn of 1944, the whole camp was moved to Fallingbostel where this airman worked in liaison with French workmen in order to obtain passports, food, and equipment for the use of escapers. Later, while on the march from Stalag 357, Flight Sergeant Lacharite and a companion left the column on the 5th day of the march, and after three days in the woods, made contact with Allied troops. Throughout his period of captivity, Flight Sergeant Lacharite showed great determination to escape and also to assist other escapers. He set a fine example to his fellow prisoners."

ORDERS IN COUNCIL

P.C. 739

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 27th February, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report dated 15th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:

That the permittee, under Permit No. 207 issued on the 28th day of October, 1945, under the Regulations for the disposal of Petroleum and Natural Gas Rights, the property of the Crown in the Northwest Territories and Yukon, established by Order in Council P.C. 5059 dated June 30, 1944, at the time of his application made a cash deposit of $16,000 in place of $12,800, the amount actually required by the said Regulations, as a guarantee that an expenditure equal thereto would be made during the first eighteen months of the permit;

That, inadvertently, the said sum of $16,000 was deposited to Revenue;

That the permittee has requested to be allowed to make a deposit of bonds to the amount of $12,800 and obtain a refund of the deposit of $16,000;

That the permittee has submitted evidence that during the period from October 28, 1945, up to the present time, he has made an expenditure of $21,936 on exploration work in the area covered by the said permit;

That the said permittee has submitted an affidavit proving that due to two unforeseen accidents, namely, a serious fire on May 11, 1946, and later, the striking of a considerable flow of gas, his exploration work has been delayed and that he needs a further four months in which to complete his explorations and be in a position to decide whether or not to continue his drilling, and agrees that the deposit of $12,800 in bonds be retained during the said period of four months;

That Section 10 of the said Regulations reads as follows:

"10. At the expiration of eighteen months after a permit is first issued the permittee shall deposit money or guarantee bond satisfactory to the Minister to the value of forty cents (40c) for each acre included in the permit."

The Minister is of the opinion that the said permittee has made a conscientious effort to explore the area covered by the said permit and, if the two accidents referred to above, had not occurred, he would have completed his explorations within the first eighteen months of the permit.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chap. 113, R.S.C. 1927:

1. The refund of the cash deposit of $16,000 from Revenue be made to the permittee upon the deposit of $12,800 in money or bonds; and
2. The Minister of Mines and Resources be authorized to grant the permittee an extension of time up to but not after August 28, 1947, in which to complete the first stage of his explorations and in which to deposit money or guarantee bond or otherwise comply with said Regulations on the understanding that the $12,800 in money or bonds shall remain on deposit until August 28, 1947.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

11-4

P.C. 784

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 4th March, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 25th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:—

That Mr. R. Bingham, the recorded owner of mineral claims "RN" 3 and 4, situated in the Yellowknife mining district, N.W.T., neglected to renew his miner's licence No. 18163 for the licence year 1946-47 as required by the Regulations for the Disposal of Quartz Mining Claims on Dominion Lands in the Northwest Territories and that in consequence of this neglect the said mineral claims lapsed and became open for restaking;

That it is stated by Mr. Bingham that this neglect was due to a change in his business;

That Mr. Bingham has performed all the representation work required upon the said claims until September 27, 1963, and has forwarded $10 to pay for a special renewal of the above noted miner's licence.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chapter 113, Revised Statutes of Canada 1927, authority be granted to issue a special renewal of miner's licence No. 18163 for the year 1946-47, and to re-instate the two claims referred to at the risk of the recorded holder subject to the rights of any persons who may have acquired any interest under the provisions of the said Regulations covering the whole or any portion of the ground included in the claims.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

Avis de bills privés

107. Toute demande adressée au Parlement pour obtenir un bill privé doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande, être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et désigner l'adresse des signataires; et si la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi en constitution de corporation, l'avis doit aussi mentionner le nom de la compagnie dont la constitution est projetée.

Outre l'avis dans la Gazette du Canada, comme susdit, pareil avis doit être donné de la façon suivante:

(A) Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation:

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité, ville ou village de chaque comté ou district par où doit passer le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la constitution est projetée;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire dans lequel la compagnie se propose d'exercer des opérations;

3. Une compagnie ayant pour objet l'exécution d'entreprises dont l'exécution ou l'exploitation pourrait spécialement affecter une localité particulière, ou cherchant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou voulant accomplir toute affaire ou chose dont l'accomplissement affecterait les droits ou propriétés d'autrui—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits particuliers que le projet de loi peut affecter;

4. Une compagnie de banque; compagnie d'assurance; compagnie fiduciaire; compagnie de prêt, ou compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement;

5. Et si les entreprises d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarées d'utilité publique au Canada, cette intention doit être expressément mentionnée dans l'avis; et les requérants doivent adresser une copie de cet avis, sous pli recommandé, au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale pouvant être particulièrement affectée par l'exécution ou l'exploitation de ces entreprises, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle des entreprises sont ou peuvent être situées; et la preuve de l'observation de cette prescription par les requérants doit être établie par une déclaration statutaire.

(B) Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier une loi existante:

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient—l'avis doit être le même mutatis mutandis que celui pour l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal:

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement, d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres entreprises déjà autorisées—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a ou est autorisée à avoir son siège social;

3. Afin d'élargir les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans comporter attribution de droits exclusifs); d'accroître ou de réduire le capital social d'une compagnie; ou d'augmenter ou modifier son pouvoir d'émettre des obligations ou ses autres pouvoirs d'emprunt; ou de présenter un amendement pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou aux intérêts des actionnaires, des détenteurs d'obligations ou des créanciers de la compagnie—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de son siège social.

(C) Tous ces avis, qu'ils soient insérés dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doivent être publiés au moins une fois par semaine pendant quatre semaines consécutives; et, lorsqu'ils sont publiés dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langues anglaise et française.

Des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis doivent être adressés au greffier du Sénat et porter la mention: "Avis de bill privé"; au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire attestant que l'avis a été régulièrement publié peut être adressée au greffier du Sénat.

Tout avis adressé sous pli recommandé doit être mis à la poste à temps pour parvenir au secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale deux semaines au moins avant l'examen de la pétition par le comité des ordres permanents; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait de la mise à la poste doit être transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition demandant la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou le prolongement de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ne doit être étudiée par le comité des ordres permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé de l'entreprise, ainsi que chaque comté, canton, district ou municipalité par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement dont la construction est projetée.

110. Toute pétition tendant à obtenir un bill privé ne sera reçue par le Sénat que si elle a été déposée chez le greffier du Sénat au cours des six premières semaines de la session; et tout bill privé introduit au Sénat doit être présenté au Sénat dans un délai de deux semaines après que l'examinateur des pétitions ou le comité des ordres permanents aura fait un rapport favorable à la pétition se rapportant à ce bill; et aucune motion demandant la suspension du présent ordre permanent ne sera prise en considération à moins que le comité des ordres permanents n'ait au préalable présenté un rapport recommandant pareille suspension.

114. Toute personne qui désire présenter un bill privé doit remettre au greffier du Sénat, s'il est projeté que le bill prenne naissance au Sénat, une copie du bill en anglais ou en français, avec un montant suffisant pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les fonctionnaires du Sénat; elle doit aussi payer les frais d'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français. Le requérant doit pareillement verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant sa mise à l'étude par le comité auquel il est renvoyé, la somme de deux cents dollars avec les frais d'impression de la loi pour l'incorporer dans les Statuts; et il doit remettre au greffier de ce comité un reçu de ce versement.

La taxe à acquitter lors de la deuxième lecture d'un bill n'est payée qu'à la Chambre où le bill est présenté.

Modèle d'un bill amendant une loi

(2) Dans le texte du bill, sur la page de gauche, le nouveau texte doit être indiqué par les signes typographiques les plus appropriés à chaque cas; crochets, italique, texte souligné, astérisques, etc. En regard de chaque clause, sur la page de droite, le texte amendé par le bill, ou la partie importante de ce texte, doit être imprimé, et les changements projetés doivent y être indiqués de la manière prévue ci-dessus.

(3) Lorsqu'une clause abroge un article existant, un paragraphe ou une autre disposition d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre disposition, ou la partie qui en est importante, doit être imprimé en regard de la clause.

(4) Un mémoire du rédacteur expliquant brièvement les motifs de chaque clause doit être annexé au bill, ou distribué avec le bill. Lorsque possible, le mémoire doit être imprimé sur la page de droite du bill, en paragraphes placés en regard des clauses visées, et portant un numéro correspondant.

(5) Les règles ci-dessus s'appliquent, autant que possible, à la réimpression des bills.

L. C. MOYER,
Greffier du Sénat.

CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES

EXTRAIT DU RÈGLEMENT DE LA CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES TOUCHANT LA PUBLICATION DES AVIS

95. (1) Toute pétition introductive de bill privé de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada. Cet avis doit exposer clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet du bill projeté; il doit être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom, avec indication de l'adresse des signataires. Si la pétition tend à une loi de constitution en corporation, l'avis doit mentionner le nom de la compagnie projetée. Si les travaux d'une compagnie, qu'elle soit constituée en corporation ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer en corporation, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les pétitionnaires doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité que la construction ou la mise en œuvre de ses ouvrages peut intéresser, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province où ces mêmes ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Tout avis ainsi expédié par lettre recommandée doit être mis à la poste assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être renvoyé. La preuve que les requérants se sont conformés à cette règle s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

(2) Outre l'avis devant figurer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable dans quelque journal important, comme suit:

(A) 1. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district que doit traverser le chemin de fer ou le canal projeté;

2. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où la compagnie en question se propose d'établir son service;

3. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie créée en vue de la construction de tous ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en œuvre pourrait intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de tous droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou aux biens d'autrui, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans les diverses localités où la loi projetée pourrait porter atteinte aux affaires, droits ou biens d'autres personnes ou compagnies;

4. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une compagnie de fiducie, une compagnie de prêts ou une compagnie industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

(B) 1. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prolongement de tout chemin de fer ou canal ou de la construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district devant être desservi par ce prolongement ou cet embranchement.

2. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prorogation du délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement de toute ligne de chemin de fer, de tout embranchement ou prolongement de ligne de chemin de fer, de tout canal, de tout réseau télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou de tout ouvrage déjà autorisé il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque district intéressé.

3. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de la continuation d'une charte ou de l'extension des pouvoirs d'une compagnie (quand elle ne comporte pas la concession de droits exclusifs); ou en vue de l'augmentation ou de la réduction du capital-actions d'une compagnie quelconque; ou en vue de l'accroissement ou de la modification de sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de contracter des emprunts d'un autre genre; ou encore en vue de toute modification touchant aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où est situé le siège social de la compagnie ou à l'endroit où la compagnie est autorisée à établir son siège social.

(3) Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine durant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la pétition prend naissance dans la province de Québec ou dans la province du Manitoba, l'avis en doit être publié en anglais dans un journal anglais et en français dans un journal français, ainsi qu'en anglais et en français dans la Gazette du Canada. S'il n'y a pas de journal dans la localité où il faut annoncer ladite pétition, l'avis doit être publié à l'endroit le plus rapproché où est imprimé un journal. La preuve que l'avis en question a été dûment publié s'établit, dans chaque cas, par voie de déclaration statutaire. Toute déclaration de cette nature doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre, et elle doit porter au dos l'indication: "Avis de bill privé".

Pétitions introductives de bills privés

92. Nulle pétition introductive de bill privé n'est reçue par la Chambre si elle n'est pas présentée dans les six premières semaines de la session. Tout bill privé prenant naissance à la Chambre des communes doit y être présenté dans les deux semaines qui suivent le jour où la pétition a été rapportée favorablement par l'examinateur des pétitions ou par le comité du Règlement. Nulle motion portant suspension du présent article ne peut être accueillie à moins que le comité du Règlement n'ait préalablement présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension, en y consignant les motifs de sa décision.

97. Nulle pétition portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie se proposant d'exploiter un canal, ou portant prolongement d'une ligne de chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ou portant construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, ne sera prise en considération par l'examinateur, ou par le comité du Règlement, tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé entre les mains dudit examinateur une carte ou un plan indiquant l'endroit où se trouveront ces ouvrages, et chaque comté, canton, municipalité ou district à travers lequel le chemin de fer, le canal, le prolongement ou l'embranchement projeté doit être construit.

Bills privés

93. (1) Quiconque désire obtenir un bill privé doit déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au plus tard le premier jour de la session, une copie de ce bill en anglais ou en français, ainsi qu'une somme suffisante pour en défrayer la traduction, qui est faite par le personnel de la Chambre, et l'impression, qui est exécutée par le département des impressions publiques.

(2) Le promoteur d'un bill privé doit, après la deuxième lecture de ce bill et avant sa prise en considération par le comité qui en est saisi, défrayer l'impression de la loi dans le recueil des statuts et payer un droit de cinq cents dollars.

FRAIS ADDITIONNELS

(3) En sus des frais précités, les droits suivants doivent être imposés et payés:

(a) Lorsqu'il y a suspension d'un article du Règlement relativement à un bill ou à la pétition introductive qui s'y rattache.	$ 100
(b) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la huitième semaine et avant l'expiration de la douzième semaine de la session..	100
(c) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la douzième semaine de la session.	200
(d) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ne dépasse pas $250,000.. ..	100
(e) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $250,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $500,000..	200
(f) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $750,000..	300
(g) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $750,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,000,000..	400
(h) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,000,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,500,000..	600
(i) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $2,000,000..	800
(j) Pour chaque million de dollars de capital-actions additionnel ou fraction de million..	200

(4) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation du capital-actions d'une compagnie existante le droit additionnel à débourser est basé sur le tarif précité, et il n'y est fait état que du montant de l'accroissement.

(5) (a) Lorsqu'un bill tend à l'augmentation de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie ou en comporte l'augmentation sans qu'il y ait accroissement du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est de trois cents dollars.

(b) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation à la fois du capital-actions et de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie, le droit additionnel est perçu sur les deux.

(6) Si, à quelque phase du bill, il y a augmentation du capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ou de sa faculté d'emprunt, le bill en question ne peut franchir une autre étape tant que ses promoteurs n'auront pas soldé les frais occasionnés par cette modification.

(7) Dans la présente règle, l'expression "capital-actions projeté" comprend toute augmentation de capital-actions prévue par le bill; et quand un bill porte faculté d'augmenter à quelque époque le chiffre du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est calculé sur le maximum de l'augmentation projetée, dont le bill fait mention.

(8) Les droits additionnels établis par la présente règle s'appliquent aussi aux bills privés qui ont pris naissance au Sénat; néanmoins, si la pétition introductive d'un bill privé de ce genre a été présentée à la Chambre des communes dans les six premières semaines de la session, les droits additionnels prévus aux alinéas (b) ou (c) du paragraphe 3 ne sont pas exigibles.

Du bill-type

96. (1) Le greffier en chef des bills privés remplit les fonctions d'examinateur des bills privés, et, comme tel, il est tenu d'étudier et de reviser tous les bills privés antérieurement à leur impression, en vue d'y établir une certaine uniformité, lorsque la chose est possible, et de s'assurer qu'ils ont été élaborés conformément aux articles du Règlement de la Chambre relatifs aux bills privés.

(2) Tout bill tendant à la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie doit, lorsqu'il a été adopté

une formule de bill-type, être rédigé en conformité de ce modèle, dont il peut être obtenu des exemplaires du greffier de la Chambre. Toute disposition d'un bill de ce genre qui n'est pas conforme au bill-type doit être insérée entre crochets ou soulignée, et elle doit être imprimée de la sorte.

(3) Lorsqu'un bill privé porte modification d'un article, paragraphe ou alinéa quelconque d'une loi existante, ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa doit être abrogé dans le texte du bill et reconstitué selon la modification que les auteurs du bill veulent y apporter, la nouvelle rédaction devant être soulignée. L'article, le paragraphe ou alinéa que les auteurs veulent faire abroger, ou encore ce qu'il renferme d'essentiel, doit être imprimé sur la feuille du côté droit en regard de ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa.

(4) Lorsqu'un bill privé tend à abroger un article, paragraphe ou autre partie d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre partie, ou encore ce qui s'y trouve d'essentiel, doit être imprimé en regard de l'article du bill.

CARTE OU PLAN ACCOMPAGNANT LE BILL

98. Nul bill portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, nul bill tendant à faire autoriser la construction d'embranchements ou de prolongements se rattachant à des lignes de chemins de fer ou à des canaux existants, nul bill portant modification de la route suivie par un chemin de fer ou un canal exploité par une compagnie déjà constituée en corporation ne doit être pris en considération par le comité des chemins de fer tant qu'il n'aura pas été produit devant ledit comité, au moins une semaine avant la prise en considération du bill, une carte ou un plan établi sur une échelle d'au moins un demi-pouce au mille, indiquant le territoire sur lequel il est question de construire les ouvrages projetés et aussi les ouvrages analogues qui y ont déjà été construits ou autorisés, ou qui intéressent la région ou la partie de région devant être desservie par les services projetés. Cette carte ou ce plan doit porter la signature de l'ingénieur ou de toute autre personne qui l'a dressé.

CHAPTER 50

Drafting

Note.—Refer carefully to article 102 (Definitions) when reading every regulation in this Chapter

Section 1—Principles and Method of Drafting

50.01—Definition of Draft

In these Regulations and in orders applying and implementing them "draft" means the official transfer for all purposes of a man from one ship, vessel or fleet establishment to another.

50.02—When Draft is Required

(1) A man shall be drafted when:

(a) he is transferred to or from

(i) a ship or fleet establishment,

(ii) a tender that is not manned by the parent ship or fleet establishment, and

(iii) a merchant vessel; and

(b) the ship in which he is serving

(i) does not carry the Navy Pay Records of persons serving on board, and

(ii) is transferred from the administration of the ship or fleet establishment where the Navy Pay Records are carried.

(2) A man shall normally be drafted to a ship when the ship is commissioned, and for the period that the ship is commissioned.

50.03—Authority to Draft

(1) The Officer-in-Charge, R.C.N. Depot:

(a) is the only person who may authorize a draft; and

(b) may, under these Regulations, draft any man, or number of men, at any time.

(2) Drafting instructions from the Officer-in-Charge of any R.C.N. Sub-Depot established as a division of the R.C.N. Depot under article 2.32 (R.C.N. Depot and Sub-Depots) shall have the force of instructions from the Officer-in-Charge, R.C.N. Depot.

50.04—Authority to Stop a Draft

(1) The Officer-in-Charge R.C.N. Depot is the only person who may:

(a) authorize the cancellation of a draft; or

(b) declare a man to be stop draft.

(2) A draft may be stopped, or a man considered not eligible for draft, only for medical, dental or disciplinary reasons, or for any other reason approved by the Officer-in-Charge R.C.N. Depot.

(3) (a) When a man is considered ineligible for draft, whether draft has been ordered or not, his Captain shall inform the R.C.N. Depot.

(b) When any man is reported as ineligible for draft under this clause, the report shall include

(i) full details of the circumstances, and

(ii) the anticipated period that the man will not be eligible for draft.

50.05—Report of Transfer When Draft is Required

When for medical, disciplinary or any other reason, a man is transferred from a ship or fleet establishment under circumstances which require a draft under article 50.02, his Captain shall immediately report the circumstances to the R.C.N. Depot so that the man may be drafted.

(See articles 30.90—"Men in Hospital on Sailing" and 30.91—"Exchange of Men".)

50.06—Report of Men Drafted

(1) When men are drafted from a ship or fleet establishment the Captain shall inform the ship or fleet establishment to which they are drafted, of:

(a) time of departure;

(b) estimated time of arrival;

(c) method of arrival; and

(d) when applicable

(i) the officer or man in charge of draft, and

(ii) the number of Chief and Petty Officers, and of other ratings in the draft.

(2) When practicable, the report prescribed by (1) of this article shall be despatched to reach the ship or fleet establishment to which a man is drafted at least twelve hours before the time of his arrival.

(50.07: not allocated.)

50.08—Classification of Men For Drafting According to Port Divisions

For drafting purposes, all men in the Naval Forces shall be classified as belonging to either:

(a) Halifax Port Division, comprising all men who

(i) at time of first enlistment were domiciled east of Port Arthur, Ontario, or

(ii) are transferred to the Halifax Port Division in accordance with article 50.11—"Transfers Between Home Port Divisions"; or

(b) Esquimalt Port Division, comprising all men who

(i) at time of first enlistment were domiciled in Port Arthur, Ontario, or west of that locality, or

(ii) are transferred to the Esquimalt Port Division in accordance with article 50.11—"Transfers Between Home Port Divisions".

50.09—Drafting for Service Outside Home Port Division Area

A man shall only be required to serve outside his home port division area where such a draft is necessary:

(a) to adjust the numbers of substantive and non-substantive rates borne in each home port division to agree with authorized complements as prescribed by the Chief of the Naval Staff; or

(b) by the transfer of the ship in which he is serving to the opposite home port division area; or

(c) to complete the complement or percentage of complement of ships and establishments in opposite port division area which are to be manned by men belonging to that home port division; or

(d) to undergo a professional or non-substantive course for which no facilities exist in his own home port division area.

(Note.—Ships and establishments to be manned by men belonging to each of the home port divisions will be promulgated by memorandum.)

50.10—Duration of Service Outside Home Port Division Area

(1) Under normal circumstances, a man drafted to service outside his home port division area, except:

shall not be returned under six months, and shall not be required to serve longer than two years away from his home port division area.

(2) Subject to drafting conditions, no man shall be required to serve longer than two years in any one term of engagement outside his home port division area.

50.11—Transfers Between Home Port Divisions

(1) A roster of applicants applying for transfer from one port division to another shall be maintained at Naval Service Headquarters.

(2) It is to be distinctly understood, however, that justifiable reasons are to be given for requesting transfer and that transfers will only be approved where:

(a) vacancy in complement exists in the port division to which the man wishes to transfer and draft from present port division will not reduce the number of men holding that substantive rating or non-substantive rate borne below the complement prescribed; or

(b) exchange of men holding equivalent ratings can be conveniently arranged.

50.12—Service for Drafting Purposes

(1) For drafting purposes a man's service shall be divided into:

(a) service outside home port division area;

(b) home sea service; and

(c) home port service.

(2) Home port division area, home sea service, and home port service are defined in Naval General Orders.

(3) A man shall be drafted for sea service as soon as practicable after the completion of new entry training. When practicable he shall be drafted to a ship in his home port division area.

(4) As far as practicable all men of the same rating shall serve equal periods in sea and port service.

(5) A man shall serve on the east or west coast, or in ships operating from the east or west coast, as the exigencies of the service require.

(6) Subject to drafting conditions, a man shall normally be withdrawn from home sea service before being drafted to service outside his home port division area.

(7) When the Naval Forces are not on active service a man shall not normally be required to serve at sea:

(i) during the last year before he completes time for pension, and

(ii) after attaining the age of forty-eight years.

(50.13 and 50.14: not allocated.)

50.15—Status of Personnel Employed on Drafting Duties

Officers and men employed in the R.C.N. Depot or in any R.C.N. Sub-Depot shall be:

(c) afforded every facility necessary for the efficient performance of their duties.

(50.16 to 50.19 inclusive: not allocated.)

Section 2—Rosters

50.20—General Service Rosters

(1) So that every man of the Naval Forces may be drafted in his turn for service outside his home port division area, home sea and home port service, the relative position of each man for draft, as determined under article 50.21 shall be recorded on the general service rosters.

(2) The general service rosters shall consist of the:

(a) service outside home port division roster;

(b) home port service roster; and

(c) home sea service roster.

(3) The general service rosters shall be maintained by the Officer-in-Charge of:

(a) the R.C.N. Depot, to record the position for draft of all men of the Naval Forces; and

(4) Subject to the selection of the most suitable man from amongst those eligible for any draft, men shall be drafted under these Regulations, in accordance with their roster position.

(5) The general service rosters shall be kept locked up when not under the direct supervision of an officer.

50.21—Position on Roster for Service Outside Home Port Division Area

(b) of enlistment; or

(c) the ship in which he is serving, if operating from a station outside his home port division area, returns to his home base.

(2) For every four months home sea service subsequent to returning to home port division area, a man's roster date shall be antedated one month. For periods less than four months, adjustment shall be made to the nearest month, and one week's credit given for each month of sea service.

(3) No adjustment of roster date shall be made for service outside home port division area for:

(a) time spent undergoing professional or non-substantive courses, unless

(i) course is of longer duration than six months, or

(ii) the man will not be returned to ship or establishment in home port division area on completion of the course; or

(b) time spent undergoing new entry training unless a man is not drafted to ship or establishment in home port division area on completion; or

50.22—Position on Home Port and Home Sea Service Rosters

(1) Subject to (2) of this article the position of a man shall be determined on the:

(a) home port service roster by

(i) date of draft to home port service, or

(ii) in the case of a man newly entered, date of completion of new entry training; and

(b) home sea service roster, by the date of draft to sea service.

(2) The roster position of a man who is drafted shall be adjusted, when he has served either in port or sea service for a period:

(a) greater than two years, by

(i) subtracting two years from the period he has served, and

(ii) post dating his roster date by the result; and

(b) less than two years, by

(i) subtracting the period he has served from two years, and

(ii) antedating his roster date by the result.

50.23—Miscellaneous Rosters

The R.C.N. Depot shall maintain whatever additional rosters are required to record for drafting purposes the names of:

(a) candidates for courses: (See article 7.37—"Training in Royal Navy", 9.07—"Return of Men Recommended to Qualify for Non-Substantive Rates," 9.08—"Selection of Men to Qualify for Non-Substantive Rate" and 9.16—"Reclassification in Non-Substantive Rate".)

(b) candidates for commissioned and warrant rank;

EXTRACTS FROM THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE

107. All applications to Parliament for Private Bills, of any nature whatsoever, shall be advertised by a notice published in the Canada Gazette. Such notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and object of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same; and when the application is for an Act of Incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the notice.

In addition to the notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar notice shall be given as follows:

A. When the application is for an Act to incorporate,—

1. A Railway or Canal Company.—In some leading newspaper published in the principal city, town or village in each county or district through which the proposed railway or canal is to be constructed.

2. A Telegraph or Telephone Company.—In a leading newspaper in the principal city or town in each Province or Territory in which the company proposes to operate.

3. A company for the construction of any works which in their construction or operation might specially affect a particular locality or for obtaining any exclusive rights or privileges, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of others.—In a leading newspaper in the particular locality or localities which may be affected by the proposed Act.

4. A Banking Company; an Insurance Company; a Trust Company; a Loan Company, or an Industrial Company, without any exclusive powers.—In the Canada Gazette only.

5. And, if the works of any company (incorporated or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specially mentioned in the notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such notice to be sent by registered letter to the clerk of each county council and of each municipal corporation which may be specially affected by the construction or operation of such works, and also, to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are, or may be located; and proof of compliance with this requirement by the applicants shall be established by statutory declaration.

B. When the application is for the purpose of amending an existing Act,—

1. For an extension of any line of railway, or of any canal; or for the construction of branches thereto,—the same mutatis mutandis as for an Act to incorporate a Railway or Canal Company.

2. For an extension of the time for the construction or completion of any line of railway, or of any canal, or of any telegraph or telephone line, or of any other works already authorized:—In a principal newspaper in the place where the head office of the company is, or is authorized to be.

3. For the extension of the powers of a company (when not involving the granting of any exclusive rights) or for the increase or reduction of the capital stock of any company; or for increasing or altering its bonding or other borrowing powers; or for any amendment which would in any way affect the rights or interest of the shareholders or bondholders or creditors of the company:—In a principal newspaper in the place where the head office of the company is situated.

C. All such notices, whether, inserted in the Canada Gazette or in a newspaper, shall be published at least once a week for a period of four consecutive weeks; and when published in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba shall be in both the English and French languages; and marked copies of each issue of all newspapers containing any such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate, endorsed "Private Bill Notice," or a statutory declaration as to due publication may be sent in lieu thereof.

Every notice by registered letter shall be mailed in time to reach the Secretary of the Province and the clerk of each county council and municipal corporation not less than two weeks before the consideration of the petition by the Committee on Standing Orders; and a statutory declaration establishing the fact of such mailing shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate.

108. No petition praying for the incorporation of a Railway Company, or of a Canal Company, or for an extension of the line of any existing or authorized railway or canal, shall be considered by the Standing Orders Committee, until there has been filed with the Committee a map or plan, showing the proposed location of the works, and each county, township, district or municipality through which the proposed railway or canal, or any branch or extension thereof, is to be constructed.

110. ORDERS IN COUNCIL

P.C. 739

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 27th February, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report dated 15th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:

That the permittee, under Permit No. 207 issued on the 28th day of October, 1945, under the Regulations for the disposal of Petroleum and Natural Gas Rights, the property of the Crown in the Northwest Territories and Yukon, established by Order in Council P.C. 5059 dated June 30, 1944, at the time of his application made a cash deposit of $16,000 in place of $12,800, the amount actually required by the said Regulations, as a guarantee that an expenditure equal thereto would be made during the first eighteen months of the permit;

That, inadvertently, the said sum of $16,000 was deposited to Revenue;

That the permittee has requested to be allowed to make a deposit of bonds to the amount of $12,800 and obtain a refund of the deposit of $16,000;

That the permittee has submitted evidence that during the period from October 28, 1945, up to the present time, he has made an expenditure of $21,936 on exploration work in the area covered by the said permit;

That the said permittee has submitted an affidavit proving that due to two unforeseen accidents, namely, a serious fire on May 11, 1946, and later, the striking of a considerable flow of gas, his exploration work has been delayed and that he needs a further four months in which to complete his explorations and be in a position to decide whether or not to continue his drilling, and agrees that the deposit of $12,800 in bonds be retained during the said period of four months;

That Section 10 of the said Regulations reads as follows:

"10. At the expiration of eighteen months after a permit is first issued the permittee shall deposit money or guarantee bond satisfactory to the Minister to the value of forty cents (40c) for each acre included in the permit."

The Minister is of the opinion that the said permittee has made a conscientious effort to explore the area covered by the said permit and, if the two accidents referred to above, had not occurred, he would have completed his explorations within the first eighteen months of the permit.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chap. 113, R.S.C. 1927:

1. The refund of the cash deposit of $16,000 from Revenue be made to the permittee upon the deposit of $12,800 in money or bonds; and
2. The Minister of Mines and Resources be authorized to grant the permittee an extension of time up to but not after August 28, 1947, in which to complete the first stage of his explorations and in which to deposit money or guarantee bond or otherwise comply with said Regulations on the understanding that the $12,800 in money or bonds shall remain on deposit until August 28, 1947.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
11-4 Clerk of the Privy Council.

P.C. 784

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 4th March, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 25th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:—

That Mr. R. Bingham, the recorded owner of mineral claims "RN" 3 and 4, situated in the Yellowknife mining district, N.W.T., neglected to renew his miner's licence No. 18163 for the licence year 1946-47 as required by the Regulations for the Disposal of Quartz Mining Claims on Dominion Lands in the Northwest Territories and that in consequence of this neglect the said mineral claims lapsed and became open for restaking;

That it is stated by Mr. Bingham that this neglect was due to a change in his business;

That Mr. Bingham has performed all the representation work required upon the said claims until September 27, 1963, and has forwarded $10 to pay for a special renewal of the above noted miner's licence.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chapter 113, Revised Statutes of Canada 1927, authority be granted to issue a special renewal of miner's licence No. 18163 for the year 1946-47, and to re-instate the two claims referred to at the risk of the recorded holder subject to the rights of any persons who may have acquired any interest under the provisions of the said Regulations covering the whole or any portion of the ground included in the claims.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
11-4 Clerk of the Privy Council.

P.C. 855

Certified to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 11th March, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report dated March 4, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:

That Mr. F. O'Brien is the recorded owner of mineral claims "Kay" 1 and 2 and "Kay" 3 fractional, 4 and 5 fractional, which are situated in the Northwest Territories and constitute two groups under the Regulations for the Disposal of Quartz Mining Claims on Dominion Lands in the Northwest Territories;

Through neglect of a third party Mr. O'Brien's miner's licence for the year 1945-46 was not renewed and in consequence the above claims lapsed under Section 14 (5) of the Regulations;

That when this condition was drawn to Mr. O'Brien's attention he obtained a new miner's licence No. 20685 and restaked all the above claims in his own name and under the same nomenclature; and

That Mr. O'Brien had performed representation work to the total value of $598.75 upon the claims staked under his first licence but this work was not recorded as the claims had lapsed.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chapter 113, R.S.C. 1927, authority be granted to credit the relocated claims with the work performed and issue certificates of work accordingly provided that the Regulations have been and are being complied with in every other respect.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
12-4 Clerk of the Privy Council.

SÉNAT

Avis de bills privés

107. Toute demande adressée au Parlement pour obtenir un bill privé doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande, être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et désigner l'adresse des signataires; et si la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi en constitution de corporation, l'avis doit aussi mentionner le nom de la compagnie dont la constitution est projetée.

Outre l'avis dans la Gazette du Canada, comme susdit, pareil avis doit être donné de la façon suivante:

(A) Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation:

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité, ville ou village de chaque comté ou district par où doit passer le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la constitution est projetée;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire dans lequel la compagnie se propose d'exercer des opérations;

3. Une compagnie ayant pour objet l'exécution d'entreprises dont l'exécution ou l'exploitation pourrait spécialement affecter une localité particulière, ou cherchant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou voulant accomplir toute affaire ou chose dont l'accomplissement affecterait les droits ou propriétés d'autrui—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits particuliers que le projet de loi peut affecter;

4. Une compagnie de banque; compagnie d'assurance; compagnie fiduciaire; compagnie de prêt, ou compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement;

5. Et si les entreprises d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarées d'utilité publique au Canada, cette intention doit être expressément mentionnée dans l'avis; et les requérants doivent adresser une copie de cet avis, sous pli recommandé, au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale pouvant être particulièrement affectée par l'exécution ou l'exploitation de ces entreprises, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle des entreprises sont ou peuvent être situées; et la preuve de l'observation de cette prescription par les requérants doit être établie par une déclaration statutaire.

(B) Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier une loi existante:

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient—l'avis doit être le même mutatis mutandis que celui pour l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal:

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement, d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres entreprises déjà autorisées—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a ou est autorisée à avoir son siège social;

3. Afin d'élargir les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans comporter attribution de droits exclusifs); d'accroître ou de réduire le capital social d'une compagnie; ou d'augmenter ou modifier son pouvoir d'émettre des obligations ou ses autres pouvoirs d'emprunt; ou de présenter un amendement pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou aux intérêts des actionnaires, des détenteurs d'obligations ou des créanciers de la compagnie—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de son siège social.

(C) Tous ces avis, qu'ils soient insérés dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doivent être publiés au moins une fois par semaine pendant quatre semaines consécutives; et, lorsqu'ils sont publiés dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langues anglaise et française.

Des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis doivent être adressés au greffier du Sénat et porter la mention: "Avis de bill privé"; au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire attestant que l'avis a été régulièrement publié peut être adressée au greffier du Sénat.

Tout avis adressé sous pli recommandé doit être mis à la poste à temps pour parvenir au secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale deux semaines au moins avant l'examen de la pétition par le comité des ordres permanents; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait de la mise à la poste doit être transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition demandant la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou le prolongement de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ne doit être étudiée par le comité des ordres permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé de l'entreprise, ainsi que chaque comté, canton, district ou municipalité par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement dont la construction est projetée.

110. Toute pétition tendant à obtenir un bill privé ne sera reçue par le Sénat que si elle a été déposée chez le greffier du Sénat au cours des six premières semaines de la session; et tout bill privé introduit au Sénat doit être présenté au Sénat dans un délai de deux semaines après que l'examinateur des pétitions ou le comité des ordres permanents aura fait un rapport favorable à la pétition se rapportant à ce bill; et aucune motion demandant la suspension du présent ordre permanent ne sera prise en considération à moins que le comité des ordres permanents n'ait au préalable présenté un rapport recommandant pareille suspension.

114. Toute personne qui désire présenter un bill privé doit remettre au greffier du Sénat, s'il est projeté que le bill prenne naissance au Sénat, une copie du bill en anglais ou en français, avec un montant suffisant pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les fonctionnaires du Sénat; elle doit aussi payer les frais d'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français. Le requérant doit pareillement verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant sa mise à l'étude par le comité auquel il est renvoyé, la somme de deux cents dollars avec les frais d'impression de la loi pour l'incorporer dans les Statuts; et il doit remettre au greffier de ce comité un reçu de ce versement.

La taxe à acquitter lors de la deuxième lecture d'un bill n'est payée qu'à la Chambre où le bill est présenté.

Modèle d'un bill amendant une loi

(2) Dans le texte du bill, sur la page de gauche, le nouveau texte doit être indiqué par les signes typographiques les plus appropriés à chaque cas; crochets, italique, texte souligné, astérisques, etc. En regard de chaque clause, sur la page de droite, le texte amendé par le bill, ou la partie importante de ce texte, doit être imprimé, et les changements projetés doivent y être indiqués de la manière prévue ci-dessus.

(3) Lorsqu'une clause abroge un article existant, un paragraphe ou une autre disposition d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre disposition, ou la partie qui en est importante, doit être imprimé en regard de la clause.

(4) Un mémoire du rédacteur expliquant brièvement les motifs de chaque clause doit être annexé au bill, ou distribué avec le bill. Lorsque possible, le mémoire doit être imprimé sur la page de droite du bill, en paragraphes placés en regard des clauses visées, et portant un numéro correspondant.

(5) Les règles ci-dessus s'appliquent, autant que possible, à la réimpression des bills.

L. C. MOYER,
Greffier du Sénat.

CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES

EXTRAIT DU RÈGLEMENT DE LA CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES TOUCHANT LA PUBLICATION DES AVIS

95. (1) Toute pétition introductive de bill privé de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada. Cet avis doit exposer clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet du bill projeté; il doit être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom, avec indication de l'adresse des signataires. Si la pétition tend à une loi de constitution en corporation, l'avis doit mentionner le nom de la compagnie projetée. Si les travaux d'une compagnie, qu'elle soit constituée en corporation ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer en corporation, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les pétitionnaires doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité que la construction ou la mise en œuvre de ses ouvrages peut intéresser, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province où ces mêmes ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Tout avis ainsi expédié par lettre recommandée doit être mis à la poste assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être renvoyé. La preuve que les requérants se sont conformés à cette règle s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

(2) Outre l'avis devant figurer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable dans quelque journal important, comme suit:

(A) 1. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district que doit traverser le chemin de fer ou le canal projeté;

2. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où la compagnie en question se propose d'établir son service;

3. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie créée en vue de la construction de tous ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en œuvre pourrait intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de tous droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou aux biens d'autrui, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans les diverses localités où la loi projetée pourrait porter atteinte aux affaires, droits ou biens d'autres personnes ou compagnies;

4. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une compagnie de fiducie, une compagnie de prêts ou une compagnie industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

(B) 1. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prolongement de tout chemin de fer ou canal ou de la construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district devant être desservi par ce prolongement ou cet embranchement.

2. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prorogation du délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement de toute ligne de chemin de fer, de tout embranchement ou prolongement de ligne de chemin de fer, de tout canal, de tout réseau télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou de tout ouvrage déjà autorisé il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque district intéressé.

3. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de la continuation d'une charte ou de l'extension des pouvoirs d'une compagnie (quand elle ne comporte pas la concession de droits exclusifs); ou en vue de l'augmentation ou de la réduction du capital-actions d'une compagnie quelconque; ou en vue de l'accroissement ou de la modification de sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de contracter des emprunts d'un autre genre; ou encore en vue de toute modification touchant aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où est situé le siège social de la compagnie ou à l'endroit où la compagnie est autorisée à établir son siège social.

(3) Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine durant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la pétition prend naissance dans la province de Québec ou dans la province du Manitoba, l'avis en doit être publié en anglais dans un journal anglais et en français dans un journal français, ainsi qu'en anglais et en français dans la Gazette du Canada. S'il n'y a pas de journal dans la localité où il faut annoncer ladite pétition, l'avis doit être publié à l'endroit le plus rapproché où est imprimé un journal. La preuve que l'avis en question a été dûment publié s'établit, dans chaque cas, par voie de déclaration statutaire. Toute déclaration de cette nature doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre, et elle doit porter au dos l'indication: "Avis de bill privé".

Pétitions introductives de bills privés

92. Nulle pétition introductive de bill privé n'est reçue par la Chambre si elle n'est pas présentée dans les six premières semaines de la session. Tout bill privé prenant naissance à la Chambre des communes doit y être présenté dans les deux semaines qui suivent le jour où la pétition a été rapportée favorablement par l'examinateur des pétitions ou par le comité du Règlement. Nulle motion portant suspension du présent article ne peut être accueillie à moins que le comité du Règlement n'ait préalablement présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension, en y consignant les motifs de sa décision.

97. Nulle pétition portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie se proposant d'exploiter un canal, ou portant prolongement d'une ligne de chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ou portant construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, ne sera prise en considération par l'examinateur, ou par le comité du Règlement, tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé entre les mains dudit examinateur une carte ou un plan indiquant l'endroit où se trouveront ces ouvrages, et chaque comté, canton, municipalité ou district à travers lequel le chemin de fer, le canal, le prolongement ou l'embranchement projeté doit être construit.

Bills privés

93. (1) Quiconque désire obtenir un bill privé doit déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au plus tard le premier jour de la session, une copie de ce bill en anglais ou en français, ainsi qu'une somme suffisante pour en défrayer la traduction, qui est faite par le personnel de la Chambre, et l'impression, qui est exécutée par le département des impressions publiques.

(2) Le promoteur d'un bill privé doit, après la deuxième lecture de ce bill et avant sa prise en considération par le comité qui en est saisi, défrayer l'impression de la loi dans le recueil des statuts et payer un droit de cinq cents dollars.

FRAIS ADDITIONNELS

(3) En sus des frais précités, les droits suivants doivent être imposés et payés:

(a) Lorsqu'il y a suspension d'un article du Règlement relativement à un bill ou à la pétition introductive qui s'y rattache.	$ 100
(b) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la huitième semaine et avant l'expiration de la douzième semaine de la session..	100
(c) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la douzième semaine de la session.	200
(d) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ne dépasse pas $250,000.. ..	100
(e) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $250,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $500,000..	200
(f) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $750,000..	300
(g) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $750,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,000,000..	400
(h) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,000,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,500,000..	600
(i) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $2,000,000..	800
(j) Pour chaque million de dollars de capital-actions additionnel ou fraction de million..	200

(4) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation du capital-actions d'une compagnie existante le droit additionnel à débourser est basé sur le tarif précité, et il n'y est fait état que du montant de l'accroissement.

(5) (a) Lorsqu'un bill tend à l'augmentation de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie ou en comporte l'augmentation sans qu'il y ait accroissement du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est de trois cents dollars.

(b) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation à la fois du capital-actions et de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie, le droit additionnel est perçu sur les deux.

(6) Si, à quelque phase du bill, il y a augmentation du capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ou de sa faculté d'emprunt, le bill en question ne peut franchir une autre étape tant que ses promoteurs n'auront pas soldé les frais occasionnés par cette modification.

(7) Dans la présente règle, l'expression "capital-actions projeté" comprend toute augmentation de capital-actions prévue par le bill; et quand un bill porte faculté d'augmenter à quelque époque le chiffre du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est calculé sur le maximum de l'augmentation projetée, dont le bill fait mention.

(8) Les droits additionnels établis par la présente règle s'appliquent aussi aux bills privés qui ont pris naissance au Sénat; néanmoins, si la pétition introductive d'un bill privé de ce genre a été présentée à la Chambre des communes dans les six premières semaines de la session, les droits additionnels prévus aux alinéas (b) ou (c) du paragraphe 3 ne sont pas exigibles.

Du bill-type

96. (1) Le greffier en chef des bills privés remplit les fonctions d'examinateur des bills privés, et, comme tel, il est tenu d'étudier et de reviser tous les bills privés antérieurement à leur impression, en vue d'y établir une certaine uniformité, lorsque la chose est possible, et de s'assurer qu'ils ont été élaborés conformément aux articles du Règlement de la Chambre relatifs aux bills privés.

(2) Tout bill tendant à la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie doit, lorsqu'il a été adopté une formule de bill-type, être rédigé en conformité de ce modèle, dont il peut être obtenu des exem-

plaires du greffier de la Chambre. Toute disposition d'un bill de ce genre qui n'est pas conforme au bill-type doit être insérée entre crochets ou soulignée, et elle doit être imprimée de la sorte.

(3) Lorsqu'un bill privé porte modification d'un article, paragraphe ou alinéa quelconque d'une loi existante, ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa doit être abrogé dans le texte du bill et reconstitué selon la modification que les auteurs du bill veulent y apporter, la nouvelle rédaction devant être soulignée. L'article, le paragraphe ou alinéa que les auteurs veulent faire abroger, ou encore ce qu'il renferme d'essentiel, doit être imprimé sur la feuille du côté droit en regard de ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa.

(4) Lorsqu'un bill privé tend à abroger un article, paragraphe ou autre partie d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre partie, ou encore ce qui s'y trouve d'essentiel, doit être imprimé en regard de l'article du bill.

CARTE OU PLAN ACCOMPAGNANT LE BILL

98. Nul bill portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, nul bill tendant à faire autoriser la construction d'embranchements ou de prolongements se rattachant à des lignes de chemins de fer ou à des canaux existants, nul bill portant modification de la route suivie par un chemin de fer ou un canal exploité par une compagnie déjà constituée en corporation ne doit être pris en considération par le comité des chemins de fer tant qu'il n'aura pas été produit devant ledit comité, au moins une semaine avant la prise en considération du bill, une carte ou un plan établi sur une échelle d'au moins un demi-pouce au mille, indiquant le territoire sur lequel il est question de construire les ouvrages projetés et aussi les ouvrages analogues qui y ont déjà été construits ou autorisés, ou qui intéressent la région ou la partie de région devant être desservie par les services projetés. Cette carte ou ce plan doit porter la signature de l'ingénieur ou de toute autre personne qui l'a dressé.

The following regulations, orders, etc., have been approved and are promulgated and issued to the Canadian Army.

156-2—KING'S REGULATIONS AND ORDERS FOR THE CANADIAN ARMY, 1939—AMENDMENTS (No. 95) —156-2

King's Regulations and Orders for the Canadian Army, 1939, are amended as under:

Delete Appendix VIII and substitute the following:—

"APPENDIX VIII

Confidential Reports on Officers
(Referred to in para 80)

1. The following procedure will be used in submitting confidential reports on officers irrespective of the nature of the report.

2. Paragraphs 3 to 13 inclusive shall apply only to:

(a) Officers of the Active Force.

(b) Officers of the Reserve Force and Supplementary Reserve serving with Active Force units, formations or establishments.

3. Confidential reports will be made on:

(a) MFB 318b for officers up to and including the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

(b) MFB 318c for officers of the rank of Colonel and higher.

4. Confidential reports are of two classes:

(a) Periodic.

(b) Special.
Either of these classes may be adverse or take the form of a recommendation for a change of employment.

5. Confidential reports will be prepared and submitted (one copy only) under the following circumstances:

(a) Periodic

(i) Periodic Reports on newly appointed officers will be prepared semi-annually for the first three years of service and despatched to reach Army Headquarters by the 30 June and 31 December.

(ii) Periodic Reports other than at (i) will be prepared annually and despatched to reach Army Headquarters by the 31 December.

(iii) A Periodic Report will be prepared on an officer two months after he has taken up a new appointment (command, staff or regimental) provided that the reports at (i) or (ii) above are not immediately due. If the report at (i) or (ii) serves this purpose then the officer responsible for initiating the report should so indicate.

(b) Special

(i) Change of Employment—This form of report will be initiated whenever it is apparent that an officer's particular military talents, experience and training, do not fit him for the particular employment which he is filling.

(ii) Adverse—The officer initiating this type of report must ensure that the officer being reported on has had a special period of duty of a reasonable length under his command—that he has been warned of his shortcomings—that he has been given a period to improve and that he has failed to overcome his shortcomings. Then only, should an Adverse Report be initiated.

6. Officers initiating reports will take the greatest care that they do not write a Change of Employment Report when an Adverse Report should be written and vice versa. They will ensure also that they are not influenced by their personal feelings towards the officer concerned. The Report should always show on the first page in the space provided whether it is a Change of Employment or Adverse Report.

7. Preparation and Submission of Reports

As stated in the 'General Instructions' accompanying the report form, the report is to be initiated in the first instance by the officer to whom the officer being reported upon is responsible. At a Command or Area Headquarters, the Staff Officer i/c Administration should initiate the report on all the Heads of Services. In the case of Officers Commanding Commands or Establishments coming directly under Army Headquarters, Part I only will be filled in and signed and the form will be forwarded to Army Headquarters for completion by the Chief of the General Staff. In the case of seconded officers in or out of Canada, the Director of Army Personnel will ensure that blank forms and instructions are despatched to the head of the appropriate establishment. All reports will be forwarded through Command Headquarters to Army Headquarters or direct to Army Headquarters in the case of establishments not under Commands.

8. The officer who initiates a confidential report will whether such report is favourable or adverse, communicate it to the officer reported upon. The latter will initial the report and if it is adverse, he should be afforded the opportunity of making his comments before it is forwarded to higher authority. Any comments made should be typed, signed and attached to the report form and initialled as having been read by the reporting officer.

9. When the report is favourable but remarks of a higher authority adverse to the officer reported upon are later made, the report with such remarks will be communicated to such officer and initialled by him before being forwarded to any superior authority. A similar procedure will be followed in every instance where higher authority makes remarks adverse to the officer reported upon.

10. In the event of a superior officer reporting favourably on an officer who has been adversely reported on by his commanding officer or other immediate superior, the conflicting reports will be enquired into by the military authority next in order of seniority, who will record his opinion and cause it to be communicated to the officers concerned. A note will be made in the report that these instructions have been duly complied with or an explanation furnished when they have not been carried out.

11. If the officer reported upon is not present with, or has left the unit a copy of the report will be sent to him personally by the initiating officer who will enter on the report a certificate to that effect. The copy will be returned by the officer after perusal and will then be destroyed.

12. The officer who initiates the report will also ensure that under the above circumstances, any adverse report is brought to the notice of the officer reported on in order that the provisions of paragraph 9 may be complied with.

13. If the Annual Confidential Reports of an officer recommend delayed promotion for two successive years, then his case will be specially considered at Army Headquarters.

Reserve Force and Supplementary Reserve

14. Confidential Reports other than those made on MFB 281(c) will be rendered only as special circumstances may require."

ORDERS IN COUNCIL

P.C. 739

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 27th February, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report dated 15th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:

That the permittee, under Permit No. 207 issued on the 28th day of October, 1945, under the Regulations for the disposal of Petroleum and Natural Gas Rights, the property of the Crown in the Northwest Territories and Yukon, established by Order in Council P.C. 5059 dated June 30, 1944, at the time of his application made a cash deposit of $16,000 in place of $12,800, the amount actually required by the said Regulations, as a guarantee that an expenditure equal thereto would be made during the first eighteen months of the permit;

That, inadvertently, the said sum of $16,000 was deposited to Revenue;

That the permittee has requested to be allowed to make a deposit of bonds to the amount of $12,800 and obtain a refund of the deposit of $16,000;

That the permittee has submitted evidence that during the period from October 28, 1945, up to the present time, he has made an expenditure of $21,936 on exploration work in the area covered by the said permit;

That the said permittee has submitted an affidavit proving that due to two unforeseen accidents, namely, a serious fire on May 11, 1946, and later, the striking of a considerable flow of gas, his exploration work has been delayed and that he needs a further four months in which to complete his explorations and be in a position to decide whether or not to continue his drilling, and agrees that the deposit of $12,800 in bonds be retained during the said period of four months;

That Section 10 of the said Regulations reads as follows:

"10. At the expiration of eighteen months after a permit is first issued the permittee shall deposit money or guarantee bond satisfactory to the Minister to the value of forty cents (40c) for each acre included in the permit."

The Minister is of the opinion that the said permittee has made a conscientious effort to explore the area covered by the said permit and, if the two accidents referred to above, had not occurred, he would have completed his explorations within the first eighteen months of the permit.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chap. 113, R.S.C. 1927:

1. The refund of the cash deposit of $16,000 from Revenue be made to the permittee upon the deposit of $12,800 in money or bonds; and
2. The Minister of Mines and Resources be authorized to grant the permittee an extension of time up to but not after August 28, 1947, in which to complete the first stage of his explorations and in which to deposit money or guarantee bond or otherwise comply with said Regulations on the understanding that the $12,800 in money or bonds shall remain on deposit until August 28, 1947.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
11-4 Clerk of the Privy Council.

CERTIFIED to be a true copy of a Minute of a Meeting of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General on the 4th March, 1947.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 25th February, 1947, from the Minister of Mines and Resources, representing:—

That Mr. R. Bingham, the recorded owner of mineral claims "RN" 3 and 4, situated in the Yellowknife mining district, N.W.T., neglected to renew his miner's licence No. 18163 for the licence year 1946-47 as required by the Regulations for the Disposal of Quartz Mining Claims on Dominion Lands in the Northwest Territories and that in consequence of this neglect the said mineral claims lapsed and became open for restaking;

That it is stated by Mr. Bingham that this neglect was due to a change in his business;

That Mr. Bingham has performed all the representation work required upon the said claims until September 27, 1963, and has forwarded $10 to pay for a special renewal of the above noted miner's licence.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chapter 113, Revised Statutes of Canada 1927, authority be granted to issue a special renewal of miner's licence No. 18163 for the year 1946-47, and to re-instate the two claims referred to at the risk of the recorded holder subject to the rights of any persons who may have acquired any interest under the provisions of the said Regulations covering the whole or any portion of the ground included in the claims.

O'Brien is the recorded owner of mineral claims "Kay" 1 and 2 and "Kay" 3 fractional, 4 and 5 fractional, which are situated in the Northwest Territories and constitute two groups under the Regulations for the Disposal of Quartz Mining Claims on Dominion Lands in the Northwest Territories;

Through neglect of a third party Mr. O'Brien's miner's licence for the year 1945-46 was not renewed and in consequence the above claims lapsed under Section 14 (5) of the Regulations;

That when this condition was drawn to Mr. O'Brien's attention he obtained a new miner's licence No. 20685 and restaked all the above claims in his own name and under the same nomenclature; and

That Mr. O'Brien had performed representation work to the total value of $598.75 upon the claims staked under his first licence but this work was not recorded as the claims had lapsed.

The Committee, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Mines and Resources, advise that, pursuant to the Dominion Lands Act, Chapter 113, R.S.C. 1927, authority be granted to credit the relocated claims with the work performed and issue certificates of work accordingly provided that the Regulations have been and are being complied with in every other respect.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF CANADA

TO HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL:

THE undersigned, Secretary of State of Canada, has the honour to state that a certificate of naturalization No. 28040, Series A, was issued to Cesare Narducci on the 16th January, 1924, under the provisions of Section 2 of the Naturalization Acts 1914 and 1920.

I, the undersigned, have the honour to state further that I am satisfied that Cesare Narducci has since the date of the grant of his certificate of naturalization been for a period of not less than six years ordinarily resident out of Canada, and has not maintained substantial connection with Canada.

By a notice sent to his last known address Cesare Narducci was given an opportunity of making representations against revocation. The request did not reach him, but the District Superintendent of Immigration, Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa, reported that Narducci was interviewed at his address in Niagara Falls, New York, and stated that he intended to become a citizen of the United States.

I, the undersigned, have the honour to recommend, therefore, that the certificate of naturalization granted to the said Cesare Narducci be revoked and cancelled under the provisions of Section 21 (1) (c) of the Canadian Citizenship Act, and that notice of revocation of the said certificate of naturalization be published in the Canada Gazette.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Secretary of State.

SÉNAT

Avis de bills privés

107. Toute demande adressée au Parlement pour obtenir un bill privé doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande, être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et désigner l'adresse des signataires; et si la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi en constitution de corporation, l'avis doit aussi mentionner le nom de la compagnie dont la constitution est projetée.

Outre l'avis dans la Gazette du Canada, comme susdit, pareil avis doit être donné de la façon suivante:

(A) Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation:

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal— dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité, ville ou village de chaque comté ou district par où doit passer le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la constitution est projetée;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone— dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire dans lequel la compagnie se propose d'exercer des opérations;

3. Une compagnie ayant pour objet l'exécution d'entreprises dont l'exécution ou l'exploitation pourrait spécialement affecter une localité particulière, ou cherchant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou voulant accomplir toute affaire ou chose dont l'accomplissement affecterait les droits ou propriétés d'autrui—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits particuliers que le projet de loi peut affecter;

4. Une compagnie de banque; compagnie d'assurance; compagnie fiduciaire; compagnie de prêt, ou compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement;

5. Et si les entreprises d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarées d'utilité publique au Canada, cette intention doit être expressément mentionnée dans l'avis; et les requérants doivent adresser une copie de cet avis, sous pli recommandé, au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale pouvant être particulièrement affectée par l'exécution ou l'exploitation de ces entreprises, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle des entreprises sont ou peuvent être situées; et la preuve de l'observation de cette prescription par les requérants doit être établie par une déclaration statutaire.

(B) Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier une loi existante:

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient—l'avis doit être le même mutatis mutandis que celui pour l'obtention d'une loi constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal:

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement, d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres entreprises déjà autorisées—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a ou est autorisée à avoir son siège social;

3. Afin d'élargir les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans comporter attribution de droits exclusifs); d'accroître ou de réduire le capital social d'une compagnie; ou d'augmenter ou modifier son pouvoir d'émettre des obligations ou ses autres pouvoirs d'emprunt; ou de présenter un amendement pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou aux intérêts des actionnaires, des détenteurs d'obligations ou des créanciers de la compagnie—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de son siège social.

(C) Tous ces avis, qu'ils soient insérés dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doivent être publiés au moins une fois par semaine pendant quatre semaines consécutives; et, lorsqu'ils sont publiés dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langues anglaise et française.

Des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis doivent être adressés au greffier du Sénat et porter la mention: "Avis de bill privé"; au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire attestant que l'avis a été régulièrement publié peut être adressée au greffier du Sénat.

Tout avis adressé sous pli recommandé doit être mis à la poste à temps pour parvenir au secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale deux semaines au moins avant l'examen de la pétition par le comité des ordres permanents; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait de la mise à la poste doit être transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition demandant la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou le prolongement de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ne doit être étudiée par le comité des ordres permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé de l'entreprise, ainsi que chaque comté, canton, district ou municipalité par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement dont la construction est projetée.

110. Toute pétition tendant à obtenir un bill privé ne sera reçue par le Sénat que si elle a été déposée chez le greffier du Sénat au cours des six premières semaines de la session; et tout bill privé introduit au Sénat doit être présenté au Sénat dans un délai de deux semaines après que l'examinateur des pétitions ou le comité des ordres permanents aura fait un rapport favorable à la pétition se rapportant à ce bill; et aucune motion demandant la suspension du présent ordre permanent ne sera prise en considération à moins que le comité des ordres permanents n'ait au préalable présenté un rapport recommandant pareille suspension.

114. Toute personne qui désire présenter un bill privé doit remettre au greffier du Sénat, s'il est projeté que le bill prenne naissance au Sénat, une copie du bill en anglais ou en français, avec un montant suffisant pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les fonctionnaires du Sénat; elle doit aussi payer les frais d'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français. Le requérant doit pareillement verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant sa mise à l'étude par le comité auquel il est renvoyé, la somme de deux cents dollars avec les frais d'impression de la loi pour l'incorporer dans les Statuts; et il doit remettre au greffier de ce comité un reçu de ce versement.

La taxe à acquitter lors de la deuxième lecture d'un bill n'est payée qu'à la Chambre où le bill est présenté.

Modèle d'un bill amendant une loi

(2) Dans le texte du bill, sur la page de gauche, le nouveau texte doit être indiqué par les signes typographiques les plus appropriés à chaque cas; crochets, italique, texte souligné, astérisques, etc. En regard de chaque clause, sur la page de droite, le texte amendé par le bill, ou la partie importante de ce texte, doit être imprimé, et les changements projetés doivent y être indiqués de la manière prévue ci-dessus.

(3) Lorsqu'une clause abroge un article existant, un paragraphe ou une autre disposition d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre disposition, ou la partie qui en est importante, doit être imprimé en regard de la clause.

(4) Un mémoire du rédacteur expliquant brièvement les motifs de chaque clause doit être annexé au bill, ou distribué avec le bill. Lorsque possible, le mémoire doit être imprimé sur la page de droite du bill, en paragraphes placés en regard des clauses visées, et portant un numéro correspondant.

(5) Les règles ci-dessus s'appliquent, autant que possible, à la réimpression des bills.

L. C. MOYER,
Greffier du Sénat.

EXTRAIT DU RÈGLEMENT DE LA CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES TOUCHANT LA PUBLICATION DES AVIS

95. (1) Toute pétition introductive de bill privé de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis publié dans la Gazette du Canada. Cet avis doit exposer clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet du bill projeté; il doit être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom, avec indication de l'adresse des signataires. Si la pétition tend à une loi de constitution en corporation, l'avis doit mentionner le nom de la compagnie projetée. Si les travaux d'une compagnie, qu'elle soit constituée en corporation ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer en corporation, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les pétitionnaires doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité que la construction ou la mise en œuvre de ses ouvrages peut intéresser, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province où ces mêmes ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Tout avis ainsi expédié par lettre recommandée doit être mis à la poste assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être renvoyé. La preuve que les requérants se sont conformés à cette règle s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

(2) Outre l'avis devant figurer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable dans quelque journal important, comme suit:

(A) 1. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district que doit traverser le chemin de fer ou le canal projeté;

2. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où la compagnie en question se propose d'établir son service;

3. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation une compagnie créée en vue de la construction de tous ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en œuvre pourrait intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de tous droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou aux biens d'autrui, cet avis similaire doit être publié dans les diverses localités où la loi projetée pourrait porter atteinte aux affaires, droits ou biens d'autres personnes ou compagnies;

4. Lorsqu'il s'agit de faire voter une loi à l'effet de constituer en corporation un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une compagnie de fiducie, une compagnie de prêts ou une compagnie industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

(B) 1. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prolongement de tout chemin de fer ou canal ou de la construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité, ville ou municipalité de village de chaque comté ou district devant être desservi par ce prolongement ou cet embranchement.

2. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de prorogation du délai fixé pour la construction ou l'achèvement de toute ligne de chemin de fer, de tout embranchement ou prolongement de ligne de chemin de fer, de tout canal, de tout réseau télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou de tout ouvrage déjà autorisé il est publié un avis à l'endroit où se trouve le siège social de la compagnie et dans la principale cité ou ville de chaque district intéressé.

3. Lorsque la pétition a pour objet de modifier une loi existante en vue de la continuation d'une charte ou de l'extension des pouvoirs d'une compagnie (quand elle ne comporte pas la concession de droits exclusifs); ou en vue de l'augmentation ou de la réduction du capital-actions d'une compagnie quelconque; ou en vue de l'accroissement ou de la modification de sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de contracter des emprunts d'un autre genre; ou encore en vue de toute modification touchant aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie, il est publié un avis à l'endroit où est situé le siège social de la compagnie ou à l'endroit où la compagnie est autorisée à établir son siège social.

(C) Lorsque la pétition a pour objet d'obtenir, pour quelque personne ou corporation existante, des droits ou privilèges exclusifs ou encore la faculté d'accomplir une chose dont la mise en œuvre intéresserait les droits ou biens d'autrui, il est publié un avis dans les localités où les affaires, les droits ou les biens d'autrui peuvent être spécialement compromis par la loi projetée.

(3) Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine durant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la pétition prend naissance dans la province de Québec ou dans la province du Manitoba, l'avis en doit être publié en anglais dans un journal anglais et en français dans un journal français, ainsi qu'en anglais et en français dans la Gazette du Canada. S'il n'y a pas de journal dans la localité où il faut annoncer ladite pétition, l'avis doit être publié à l'endroit le plus rapproché où est imprimé un journal. La preuve que l'avis en question a été dûment publié s'établit, dans chaque cas, par voie de déclaration statutaire. Toute déclaration de cette nature doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre, et elle doit porter au dos l'indication: "Avis de bill privé".

Pétitions introductives de bills privés

92. Nulle pétition introductive de bill privé n'est reçue par la Chambre si elle n'est pas présentée dans les six premières semaines de la session. Tout bill privé prenant naissance à la Chambre des communes doit y être présenté dans les deux semaines qui suivent le jour où la pétition a été rapportée favorablement par l'examinateur des pétitions ou par le comité du Règlement. Nulle motion portant suspension du présent article ne peut être accueillie à moins que le comité du Règlement n'ait préalablement présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension, en y consignant les motifs de sa décision.

97. Nulle pétition portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie se proposant d'exploiter un canal, ou portant prolongement d'une ligne de chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, ou portant construction d'un embranchement de voie ferrée ou de canal, ne sera prise en considération par l'examinateur, ou par le comité du Règlement, tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé entre les mains dudit examinateur une carte ou un plan indiquant l'endroit où se trouveront ces ouvrages, et chaque comté, canton, municipalité ou district à travers lequel le chemin de fer, le canal, le prolongement ou l'embranchement projeté doit être construit.

Bills privés

93. (1) Quiconque désire obtenir un bill privé doit déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au plus tard le premier jour de la session, une copie de ce bill en anglais ou en français, ainsi qu'une somme suffisante pour en défrayer la traduction, qui est faite par le personnel de la Chambre, et l'impression, qui est exécutée par le département des impressions publiques.

(2) Le promoteur d'un bill privé doit, après la deuxième lecture de ce bill et avant sa prise en considération par le comité qui en est saisi, défrayer l'impression de la loi dans le recueil des statuts et payer un droit de cinq cents dollars.

FRAIS ADDITIONNELS

(3) En sus des frais précités, les droits suivants doivent être imposés et payés:

(a) Lorsqu'il y a suspension d'un article du Règlement relativement à un bill ou à la pétition introductive qui s'y rattache.	$ 100
(b) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la huitième semaine et avant l'expiration de la douzième semaine de la session..	100
(c) Lorsqu'un bill est présenté en Chambre après la douzième semaine de la session.	200
(d) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ne dépasse pas $250,000.. ..	100
(e) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $250,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $500,000..	200
(f) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $750,000..	300
(g) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $750,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,000,000..	400
(h) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,000,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $1,500,000..	600
(i) Lorsque le capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie dépasse $1,500,000, mais n'est pas supérieur à $2,000,000..	800
(j) Pour chaque million de dollars de capital-actions additionnel ou fraction de million..	200

(4) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation du capital-actions d'une compagnie existante le droit additionnel à débourser est basé sur le tarif précité, et il n'y est fait état que du montant de l'accroissement.

(5) (a) Lorsqu'un bill tend à l'augmentation de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie ou en comporte l'augmentation sans qu'il y ait accroissement du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est de trois cents dollars.

(b) Lorsqu'un bill porte augmentation à la fois du capital-actions et de la faculté d'emprunt d'une compagnie, le droit additionnel est perçu sur les deux.

(6) Si, à quelque phase du bill, il y a augmentation du capital-actions projeté d'une compagnie ou de sa faculté d'emprunt, le bill en question ne peut franchir une autre étape tant que ses promoteurs n'auront pas soldé les frais occasionnés par cette modification.

(7) Dans la présente règle, l'expression "capital-actions projeté" comprend toute augmentation de capital-actions prévue par le bill; et quand un bill porte faculté d'augmenter à quelque époque le chiffre du capital-actions, le droit additionnel est calculé sur le maximum de l'augmentation projetée, dont le bill fait mention.

(8) Les droits additionnels établis par la présente règle s'appliquent aussi aux bills privés qui ont pris naissance au Sénat; néanmoins, si la pétition introductive d'un bill privé de ce genre a été présentée à la Chambre des communes dans les six premières semaines de la session, les droits additionnels prévus aux alinéas (b) ou (c) du paragraphe 3 ne sont pas exigibles.

Du bill-type

96. (1) Le greffier en chef des bills privés remplit les fonctions d'examinateur des bills privés, et, comme tel, il est tenu d'étudier et de reviser tous les bills privés antérieurement à leur impression, en vue d'y établir une certaine uniformité, lorsque la chose est possible, et de s'assurer qu'ils ont été élaborés conformément aux articles du Règlement de la Chambre relatifs aux bills privés.

(2) Tout bill tendant à la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie doit, lorsqu'il a été adopté une formule de bill-type, être rédigé en conformité de ce modèle, dont il peut être obtenu des exem-

plaires du greffier de la Chambre. Toute disposition d'un bill de ce genre qui n'est pas conforme au bill-type doit être insérée entre crochets ou soulignée, et elle doit être imprimée de la sorte.

(3) Lorsqu'un bill privé porte modification d'un article, paragraphe ou alinéa quelconque d'une loi existante, ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa doit être abrogé dans le texte du bill et reconstitué selon la modification que les auteurs du bill veulent y apporter, la nouvelle rédaction devant être soulignée. L'article, le paragraphe ou alinéa que les auteurs veulent faire abroger, ou encore ce qu'il renferme d'essentiel, doit être imprimé sur la feuille du côté droit en regard de ce même article, paragraphe ou alinéa.

(4) Lorsqu'un bill privé tend à abroger un article, paragraphe ou autre partie d'un article, cet article, ce paragraphe ou cette autre partie, ou encore ce qui s'y trouve d'essentiel, doit être imprimé en regard de l'article du bill.

CARTE OU PLAN ACCOMPAGNANT LE BILL

98. Nul bill portant constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal, nul bill tendant à faire autoriser la construction d'embranchements ou de prolongements se rattachant à des lignes de chemins de fer ou à des canaux existants, nul bill portant modification de la route suivie par un chemin de fer ou un canal exploité par une compagnie déjà constituée en corporation ne doit être pris en considération par le comité des chemins de fer tant qu'il n'aura pas été produit devant ledit comité, au moins une semaine avant la prise en considération du bill, une carte ou un plan établi sur une échelle d'au moins un demi-pouce au mille, indiquant le territoire sur lequel il est question de construire les ouvrages projetés et aussi les ouvrages analogues qui y ont déjà été construits ou autorisés, ou qui intéressent la région ou la partie de région devant être desservie par les services projetés. Cette carte ou ce plan doit porter la signature de l'ingénieur ou de toute autre personne qui l'a dressé.
